Beginning Indonesian 2

Ida Major

Definitely for those who already have basic Indonesian language skills and want to brush up or study more about Bahasa. It is recommended that you have undertaken Beginning Indonesian 1 or the equivalent study. We will revise the necessary grammar and choose certain topics upon consensus. The course specialises in developing confidence in listening and speaking skills. Students are encouraged to participate in all class activities.

Handouts will be distributed on a class by class basis. No textbook is required. However, you will learn more by studying any Indonesian textbook you can purchase. Ask Ida's advice on the best ones available when your class commences. It is recommended that you purchase an Indonesian dictionary.

Ida is an experienced and qualified native Indonesian teacher who has taught in Indonesia and Australia. She has qualifications in teaching, social science, Asian studies and the Indonesian language and has contributed to several Indonesian language books. Ida speaks fluently in formal and informal Indonesian, including three local languages and has a basic understanding of Javanese. She also speaks Dutch and German. Ida has had experience in translating documents for several government agencies over the past 12 years. She currently provides interpreting services for TIS (the Translating and Interpreting Service).
