Life drawing workshop

Leeanne Crisp

This workshop provides a concentrated life drawing session for beginners and professionals alike to enjoy a relaxed weekend of life drawing. Tuition will be provided in materials and methods and time will be spent looking at good drawing.

Participants will be supported in their own work and all media and any scale of work is encouraged.

Leeanne is an exhibiting artist with long experience in teaching at the School of Art. She has conducted many workshops for the Australian National Gallery and the National Portrait Gallery. She has an MA in painting and her work is held in National collections. Leeanne's current visual project is inspired by the paintings of the French painter, Poussin. She was also selected as an entrant in the 2009 Archibald Prize.

DATES/TIMES: 9am-4pm Saturday & Sunday 11 & 12 July

FEES: $265

COURSE LOCATION: The venue for this course can be found on your tax invoice/receipt (under "Course Information"). Please allow enough time to locate your course venue on the first day.

Light refreshments should be available for purchase throughout the Winter School from Chats Cafe, School of Art.
