Essay writing workshop

Celia Hodgson

Suitable for those preparing for University study. Will guide you through the steps of essay writing by analysing essay titles, planning and drafting the structure of the essay. It will clarify the technicalities of in text quoting, referencing and writing a bibliography.

NB Please bring a notepad, pen, and one text book for referencing. We also advise a packed lunch as there are limited facilities for the purchase of food on weekends at ANU.

Workshop content:

- Identifying areas of difficulty
- Analysing essay questions – a breakdown
- Structuring a paragraph
- Plagiarism (and its avoidance)
- Parts of an essay – introduction, body and conclusion
- Essay structure compared to a report
- Style and presentation
- Critical thinking and argument – relevance/conciseness
- Summary writing (abstract) requirements
- Referencing – in text and direct quotations
- Writing a bibliography

Time permitting – individual help
