

Places Lost and Found

Friday 20 October 2006

The Centre for Cross-Cultural Research

The Australian National University

A one-day event of interaction with scholars and artists who will explore the issue of places, once inhabited and made meaningful, that have been lost or destroyed but subsequently found or reinvoked – through testimony, imagery, taste, song and story.

For registration details, contact Carolyn Strange carolyn.strange@anu.edu.au
<http://www.anu.edu.au/culture/events.php>