Notification of External Sponsorship

About this form

The Notification of External Sponsorship ('NOES') form is used to notify the Australian National University ('ANU') of a sponsorship agreement between a student and an external sponsor. This form must be used for every student whose study at ANU will be fully or partially funded by a government or other organisation. Examples of who can be considered a sponsor are:

- Employer
- Government
- Government organisation
- Charitable organisation
- Non-charitable organisation

Students who are receiving funds directly from their sponsor or whose tuition fees are paid by a family member or relative are not considered a sponsored student and should not complete this form.

How to complete this form

The form consists of Section 1 to Section 9, which include terms and conditions for sponsors and sponsored students. This form must be completed and signed by the student being sponsored. It must also be completed and signed by the sponsor who has consented to pay the expenses of the student studying at ANU nominated under Section 7 of this form.

When to submit this form

Pre-enrolment

Students must submit a fully completed form at the point of accepting their offer of study. The form must be included with their Offer Acceptance Declaration and emailed to acceptance@anu.edu.au.

Post-enrolment

A new form must be submitted to sponsorships@anu.edu.au when:

- The sponsored student transfers to a different program
- The period of sponsorship changes
- Any conditions of the sponsorship change
- The sponsored student returns from a period of leave and their sponsorship duration changes

Privacy Notice

ANU is committed to protecting personal information provided by you in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the information will be protected against unauthorised access and use.

The information collected on this form will be used by authorised University staff to administer this sponsorship agreement.

All information collected by the University is governed by the ANU Privacy Policy.

For further information about how the University deals with personal information, please refer to the ANU Privacy Policy or contact the ANU Privacy Officer at privacy@anu.edu.au.

	on 3: Terms and Conditions for sponsored students e read all terms and conditions before completing this form.
1.	The Australian National University ('the University') has the right to accept or reject the sponsorship application. The University Registrar's decision is final and there is no right of appeal.
2.	You and your sponsor must complete the details on this form and the information must be true and accurate. Failure to provide all the required details means that the sponsorship will not be accepted and you will be responsible for all fees and charges incurred at the University.
3.	When you accept your academic offer, you must ensure that a copy of the completed NOES form is included with your acceptance documents, and send it to acceptance@anu.edu.au (for coursework students) or gro@anu.edu.au (for Higher Degree Research students).
4.	If you wish to transfer programs or apply to a new program, it is your responsibility to obtain approval from your sponsor prior to making any changes to your enrolment. The University will not act as an intermediary to seek approval from your sponsor on your behalf.
5.	Should any terms of the sponsorship change (i.e. change of program through transfer or change of sponsorship period) it is your responsibility to notify the Enrolments and Fees Office by completing a new NOES form and emailing it to sponsorships@anu.edu.au . The NOES form is only applicable for the program and sponsorship details listed on this form.
6.	The NOES form must be submitted prior to the semester due date for payment of fees, or you will incur a late fee. If the NOES form cannot be submitted on time, you should pay the fees by the invoice due date and seek to claim reimbursement from your sponsor. Information about late fees can be found at https://www.anu.edu.au/students/program-administration/fees-payments/late-fees
7.	If you are a commonwealth supported student, you must complete a Request for Commonwealth Support and HECS-Help through the University's Interactive Student Information System ('ISIS'), selecting the full upfront payment of your student contribution amount option. For any information or advice about that form, you can contact Student Central at student@anu.edu.au .
8.	It is your responsibility to ensure that all fees are paid on time. If all fees for a teaching period are not paid by the last day of the semester or session, your results for that semester or session will be withheld until full payment is received and you will not be permitted to enrol in any further courses. If you are nearing completion of your degree and fees are outstanding, you will not be permitted to graduate until you or your sponsor have paid all outstanding debts.
9.	Upon request from your sponsor, the University will disclose your program details, as per your consent in Section 5 of this form.

Section 4: Student Declaration (to be completed by the sponsored student)

Sec	tion 8: Terms and conditions for sponsors
1.	The Australian National University ('the University') has the right to accept or reject the sponsorship application. The University Registrar's decision is final and there is no right of appeal.
2.	The sponsor must complete the details in Sections 6-9 on the NOES form and the information must be true and accurate. Failure to provide all the details required may mean that the sponsorship will not be accepted and the student will be responsible for all fees and charges.
3.	Sponsors are billed each session throughout the period of the sponsorship. There are two standard sessions (Semester 1 and Semester 2) and four non-standard sessions (Summer, Autumn, Winter and Spring) each year. Invoices are provided after the census date of each session. For information about census dates, refer to the University's calendar.
4.	Payment will be required within the time period specified on the invoice. If all fees for the current teaching period are not paid by the due date stated on the invoice, the student will not be able to obtain results, nor be permitted to enrol in any further courses or graduate until all outstanding debts have been paid.
5.	The NOES form must be submitted prior to the semester due date for payment of fees, or a late fee will be incurred. If the NOES form cannot be submitted on time, the student is responsible for paying the fees by the due date and may seek to claim reimbursement from their sponsor. Information about late fees can be found here.
6.	Any request for information or dispute regarding a payment made by a sponsor must be received within 12 months of the date of the disputed payment and must be emailed to the Enrolments and Fees Office at sponsorships@anu.edu.au.
7.	If the sponsor does not have a company seal to complete Section 9 of this form, a brief letter titled 'Intention to Pay', written and signed by the sponsor on their letterhead must be submitted to accompany the completed NOES form.
8.	Upon request from a sponsor, the University will disclose the student's program details, as per the sponsored student's consent in Section 5. To request program information, please contact student@anu.edu.au .
9.	The University may be able to provide the sponsor with various additional services if outlined in an official agreement between the University and the sponsor. To obtain information about inclusions in an agreement, contact international.stakeholders@anu.edu.au .
