BERNARD WHEELAHAN LATIN AMERICAN TRAVEL GRANT

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences ("the College") may offer an award known as the Bernard Wheelahan Latin American Travel Grant ("the award").

The objective of the award is to assist a student with costs associated with travel to and within Latin America for the purposes of undertaking an exchange or internship.

Funding for this award has been provided by a bequest to the Australian National Centre for Latin American Studies (ANCLAS) through the generosity of Pacific-Hydro Pty Ltd.

Mr Bernard Wheelahan chaired the Council on Australia-Latin America Relations from its inception in 2001 until 2010. He has had extensive business experience in Latin America and has been a major force in strengthening ties between Australia and the region.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the award is stated in the letter of offer. The award will be payable in one instalment on acceptance of the offer to enable the recipient to travel at the beginning of semester, unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of this award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to a continuing ANU student who is enrolled:

(a) as a domestic or international student;
(b) within a program within the College of Arts and Social Sciences; and
(c) in (or permitted to enrol in) an approved exchange or internship program within Latin America.

4. APPLICATION

Applications are called for with a closing date as set by the college and advertised on the ANU scholarships website. Invitations to apply will be sent to CASS students who have been successful in being awarded an Exchange Scholarship in Latin America. The application is submitted in the form of a letter and supporting documentation forwarded via email to the address listed in section 14, prior to the closing date.
5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of:

(a) Students meeting the eligibility (Section 3),

(b) general scholarly potential, and

(c) evidence (demonstrated in the application) of a high level of understanding of Latin American issues in their field of study.

The award is offered to a student by a selection committee chaired by the Director of the Australian National Centre for Latin American Studies and will include one or more academic staff members as appropriate.

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of awards and/or offer the award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funding allows).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Bernard Wheelahan Latin American Travel Grant is permitted to concurrently hold other scholarships, awards, grants and bursaries subject to the terms of the corresponding section in the conditions of award of the other scholarship/bursary/grant/award that they are holding.

Failure to declare and obtain permission to hold another award or scholarship may result in the recipient being required to refund a payment or payments to the College, as determined by the Dean/Delegated Authority of the College (or nominee).

7. DEFERMENT

The award cannot be deferred.

8. CESSION OF AWARD

The award ceases or should be surrendered:

(a) at the conclusion of the exchange or internship program in Latin America; or

(b) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences; or

(c) if a recipient fails to undertake or complete the exchange or internship program; or

(d) if a recipient changes or applies to transfer to a program outside of the College prior to the exchange or internship; or

(e) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Misconduct & Discipline Rules or breaks the law in the country of exchange whichever is earliest.

9. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the Dean of the College may request that the payment for the scholarship be refunded in part or in full if the conditions of award are breached.

10. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

The awarding of a grant is based on the information provided to the University. An award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment in awarding the grant.

11. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis section 6 and/or 7 of these conditions of award may be varied by the Dean on the recommendation of the Chair of Selection Committee.

12. TAXATION & CENTRELINK

Recipients are responsible for seeking taxation and Centrelink advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Scholarships/grants may be regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis.

For information on how your award may affect your Centrelink benefits, see this website http://www.humanservices.gov.au/customer/enablers/income/

13. PUBLICITY

The recipient may be requested to participate in publicity for the award from time to time. This may include publicity in the state or territory of residence or of schooling. Recipients may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the award by publishing the names of the recipients. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences or Strategic Communications and Public Affairs Office of the University.

14. CONTACT WITH THE COLLEGE

All enquiries regarding the award and changes, issues, or further information after acceptance should be made to:
