1. INTRODUCTION

Every three to five years the ANU College of Business and Economics (“the College”) may offer an award known as the ANU College of Business and Economics (CBE) D. Brownbill Family Scholarship (“the award”).

The objective of the award is to strengthen educational outcomes for students both in terms of skills development and preparation for further study or employment, improve equity access figures for the University, and raise awareness of the acute disadvantages that some students face in accessing university education.

Funding for the award has been provided by CBE alumnus, Mr Don Brownbill, a strong advocate of the power education has to change lives and hence enable disadvantaged students to study at ANU.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the award will be stated in the letter of offer. The duration of the award will be up to four years, depending on the program in which the recipient is enrolled. The award will be paid in two equal instalments at the beginning of each semester, unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

Only one student can hold the award at any one time.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition and/or administrative fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. The recipient of this award is responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available to a prospective ANU student who:

(b) has gained admission into a single undergraduate coursework program at the College, or a flexible double degree program with one of the programs offered by the College; and

A supporting statement shall be submitted to the ANU College of Business and Economics via email at scholarships.cbe@anu.edu.au prior to the closing date as set by the College.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of academic merit, level of disadvantage demonstrated and the applicant’s supporting statement.

The award is offered to a student by a Selection Committee chaired by the College Dean (or nominee), including College academic staff. An interview of applicants may be required.

The Selection Committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of scholarships and/or offer the scholarship at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students.

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the ANU College of Business and Economics D. Brownbill Family Scholarship is permitted to concurrently hold other scholarships, awards, grants and bursaries subject to the terms of the corresponding section in the conditions of award of the other scholarship/bursary/grant/award that they are holding.

Failure to declare and obtain permission to hold another award or scholarship may result in the recipient being required to refund a payment or payments to the College, as determined by the Dean of the College (or nominee).

7. DEFERMENT

The recipient must take up their award in the semester for which it is offered. Any requests for deferrals of the award will be considered and must be approved by the Dean of the College (or nominee). Subject to approval, the award may be deferred for a maximum of one year.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this award is required to enrol in a full-time load of minimum 18 units each semester.

If the recipient is on international exchange, then the Award will be suspended for the duration of the scholar’s absence. The maximum period of suspension for an international exchange is one year.

Recipients are expected to maintain a 60% weighted average mark (WAM) each semester (with the average being across all courses taken in a particular semester).
If a recipient is unable to achieve the required WAM in any semester a formal warning letter is sent to the recipient’s campus email address.

If the recipient does not meet the required WAM in a subsequent semester they risk having their award suspended or terminated.

An award recipient is given the opportunity to explain their performance and how their performance can be remedied before a decision on the suspension or termination of an award is made.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The award ceases or should be surrendered:

(a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2; or
(b) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;
(c) if a recipient fails to enrol as required in section 8;
