ANU COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS
INDIA EXCELLENCE SCHOLARSHIP

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the ANU College of Business and Economics ("the College") may offer an award known as the ANU College of Business and Economics India Excellence Scholarship ("the award").

The objective of the award is to support diversity and to strengthen educational outcomes for students both in terms of skills development and preparation for further study or employment.

Funding for this award has been provided by the ANU College of Business and Economics.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the award is stated in the letter of offer. The award will be paid to the recipient, in one instalment, after census date of the first semester of their undergraduate or postgraduate program.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of any outstanding tuition and/or administrative fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. The recipients of this award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to a prospective ANU student who:

(a) is an international student;

(b) is a citizen of India;

(c) has made an application for admission to an undergraduate or postgraduate coursework program at the ANU College of Business and Economics; and

(d) has achieved at an excellent level in their final years of schooling as determined by the CBE Selection Committee.

Dependents or a spouse of staff of diplomatic or consular missions enrolling in a program at the ANU College of Business and Economics are eligible to apply.

4. APPLICATION

Applications are called for with a closing date as set by ANU College of Business and Economics and advertised on the ANU Scholarships website. The application is submitted on the prescribed electronic form and supporting documentation forwarded to the ANU College of Business and Economics prior to the closing date.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of academic merit and scholarship application.

The award is offered to a student by a Selection Committee chaired by the Dean of the College (or nominee) and will also include academic staff members from the four research schools in the College.

The Selection Committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The College may also vary the number of awards and/or offer the award at other times in exceptional circumstances, based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the ANU College of Business and Economics India Excellence Scholarship is not permitted to concurrently hold other scholarships, awards, grants and bursaries.

Failure to declare and obtain permission to hold another award or scholarship may result in the recipient being required to refund a payment or payments to the College, as determined by the Delegated Authority of the College (or nominee).

7. DEFERMENT

The recipient must take up their award in the semester for which it is offered. Any requests for deferrals of the award must be approved by the Dean of the College (or nominee). Subject to approval, the award may be deferred for a maximum of one year.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this award is required to enrol in a full-time load of 24 units in their first semester of study in a program offered by the ANU College of Business and Economics.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The award ceases or should be surrendered:

(a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2; or

(b) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;

(c) if a recipient fails to enrol as required in section 8;

(d) if a recipient changes their program to one outside of the ANU College of Business and Economics without permission;

(e) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Misconduct & Discipline Rules;

whichever is earliest.
10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the College Dean (or nominee) may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

The awarding of a scholarship is based on the information provided to the University. An award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment in awarding the scholarship.

12. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis sections 6 and 7 of these conditions of award may be varied by the Dean on the recommendation of the Selection Committee.

13. TAXATION & CENTRELINK

Recipients are responsible for seeking taxation and Centrelink advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Scholarships/grants may be regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis.

14. ACCOMMODATION

It is the recipient’s responsibility to obtain residential accommodation. Information on student accommodation and application forms are available from the University Accommodation Services. Information may be found on the Web at: http://www.anu.edu.au/study/accommodation

15. PUBLICITY

The recipient may be requested to participate in publicity for the award from time to time. This may include publicity in the state or territory of residence or of schooling. Recipients may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the award by publishing the names of the recipients. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the ANU College of Business and Economics, Marketing and Development Office or Strategic Communications and Public Affairs Office of the University.

16. CONTACT WITH THE COLLEGE
