CHRISTEL LARKO MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP
CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION
Each year the ANU School of Music, College of Arts & Social Sciences may offer two awards known as the Christel Larko Music Scholarship (“the award”).

The objective of the award is to encourage excellent students to study either classical or jazz voice or keyboard in a program offered by the ANU School of Music, College of the Arts and Social Sciences.

Funding for this award has been provided by a bequest to the Friends of the ANU School of Music.

2. BENEFITS
The value of the award is stated in the letter of offer. The award is paid after the census date of each semester in the first year of study, unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of this award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY
The award is available each year to a prospective ANU student who:

(a) is a domestic or international student.

(b) is enrolling in the first year of an undergraduate degree program, specialising in either classical or jazz voice or keyboard in a program offered by the ANU School of Music, College of the Arts and Social Sciences.

(c) achieves a high score at audition as determined by the ANU School of Music performance audition selection panel.

4. APPLICATION
No application is required as students are automatically considered based on their ANU School of Music performance audition and on them meeting the eligibility criteria or conditions prescribed under the Eligibility section.
5. SELECTION

The awards will be offered to students who, in the opinion of the committee, are deemed to display an outstanding level of musical ability and accomplishment in either piano or voice, classical or jazz, as demonstrated at audition.

The award is offered by the College Dean on the recommendation of a selection committee chaired by the ANU School of Music, Head of School, which will also include the Performance Convenor and other ANU School of Music staff as appropriate.

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

Recipients are permitted to concurrently hold other scholarships, awards, grants and bursaries subject to the terms of the corresponding section in the conditions of award of the other scholarship/bursary/grant/award that they are holding.

Failure to declare and obtain permission to hold another award or scholarship may result in the recipient being required to refund a payment or payments to the College, as determined by the College Education Dean.

7. DEFERMENT

The award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this award is required to enrol in a full-time load of 24 units in their first year of study. At the discretion of the Head of School, the scholarship may be awarded to a part-time student, where payments of the award will be made on a pro-rata basis.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The award ceases or should be surrendered:

(a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2; or

(b) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;

(c) if a recipient fails to enrol as required in section 8;

(d) if a recipient changes to part-time enrolment without receiving permission to retain their scholarship,

(e) if a recipient changes their speciality within the program without permission to retain their scholarship;

(f) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Misconduct & Discipline Rules;
10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS
Subject to the information available at the time, the Head of School may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION
The awarding of a scholarship/grant is based on the information provided to the University. An award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment in awarding the scholarship/grant.

12. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD
In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis section 6 and/or 7 of these conditions of award may be varied by the College Dean on the recommendation of the Chair of the Selection Committee.

13. TAXATION & CENTRELINK
Recipients are responsible for seeking taxation and Centrelink advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Scholarships/grants may be regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis.

For information on how your award may affect your Centrelink benefits, see this website http://www.humanservices.gov.au/customer/enablers/income/

14. ACCOMMODATION
It is the recipient’s responsibility to obtain residential accommodation. Information on student accommodation and application forms are available from the University Accommodation Services. Information may be found on the Web at: http://www.anu.edu.au/study/accommodation

15. PUBLICITY
The recipient may be requested to participate in publicity for the award from time to time. This may include publicity in the state or territory of residence or of schooling. Recipients may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the award by publishing the names of the recipients. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences or Strategic Communications and Public Affairs Office of the University.
