Deep Human History Laureate PhD Scholarship

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the School of History ("the School") in the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences ("the College") may offer three awards over the duration of the Laureate project known as the Deep Human History Laureate PhD Scholarship ("the award").

The objective of the award is to support students while they undertake a PhD in Indigenous Australian history at the University.

Funding for this award has been provided by an ARC Laureate, Rediscovering the Deep Human Past: Global Networks, Future Opportunities.

2. BENEFITS

Value: The value of the award will be stated in your letter of offer. The award will be paid in fortnightly instalments unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

HDR Fee Remission Merit Scholarship: Successful international candidates will also be awarded an HDR Fee Remission Merit Scholarship, to cover the International Student Fees for the standard duration of the research program, subject to the student being ranked as competitive in a merit-based selection process.

The recipient is responsible for the cost of books, study materials, and accommodation and for making payment of all administrative fees by the prescribed date as set by the University each session. Recipients of this award are responsible for the cost of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

Duration: The duration of a full-time award will be three years in the first instance or such shorter period as is stated in the letter of offer.

Periods of study already undertaken for the PhD degree and periods of study undertaken for the PhD degree during suspension of the award will be deducted from the duration of the award.

Periods of paid sick leave taken in accordance with Section 38 of the ANU Research Awards Rule 2016, paternity and maternity leave are additional to the normal duration of the award.

Extension: If eligible, a recipient may apply for an extension of the award by completing the Manage my Degree - HDR form. The maximum period of extension is six months and an extension may be sought only where the research has been delayed by circumstances beyond the scholar's control and is related to the research and is not of a personal nature. Doctor of Psychology (Clinical) students are not eligible for this extension.

Thesis Reimbursement: A recipient is eligible to receive a reimbursement of up to $500 for costs associated with the production of the thesis. The reimbursement must be claimed in accordance with the Australian National University’s Thesis Allowance Requirements. The reimbursement must be claimed within 12 months of submission of the thesis and no more than 2 years after termination of the award, unless exceptional circumstances can be demonstrated. A case outlining the exceptional circumstances must be made before approval for reimbursement can be considered.

PROGRAM & SCHOLARSHIP LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

A recipient who is unable to pursue their program of study should apply for Program and Scholarship leave of absence by completing the Manage my Degree - HDR form.

Personal Leave: The University may approve program and Scholarship leave of absence on personal grounds, which does not exceed a total period of twelve months during the tenure of the award. An application for program and Scholarship leave of absence for more than twelve months will only be considered if there are exceptional circumstances beyond the control of the recipient and must be approved by the Delegated Authority in the College.

Medical Leave: A recipient whose application for program and Scholarship leave of absence is approved on medical grounds will continue to receive the award for the period of the program leave of absence, on receipt of a certificate signed by a registered medical practitioner which gives the nature and likely duration of the recipient’s illness and certifies that the recipient is unable to pursue the program because of the illness. Medical grounds may also be used to cover leave for recipients with family caring responsibilities. The maximum aggregated period for receipt of the award under this provision cannot exceed 12 weeks within the duration of the award.

Maternity Leave: A recipient whose application for program and Scholarship leave of absence is approved for maternity reasons will continue to receive the award for the period of the leave of absence for up to a maximum aggregate of twelve weeks within the duration of the provided the application for program leave of absence is accompanied by a medical certificate indicating the expected date of confinement. Paid maternity leave is not available within the first twelve months of the award.

Paternity Leave: A recipient who is the partner of a woman giving birth may be entitled to 5 days’ paid parenting leave at the time of the birth provided the award has been held for at least twelve months at the time of application. The application for leave must be accompanied by a medical certificate confirming the date of birth.

In no circumstances can the program and Scholarship leave of absence exceed two years in total (which includes personal, medical, maternity and paternity leave).

3. ELIGIBILITY

The award will be available each year to a prospective student who is:

(a) a domestic or international student.

(b) enrolled or enrolling full-time in a program of study for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in the School of History at the Australian National University;

(c) interested in working closely with Indigenous communities; and

(d) is willing to work in an interdisciplinary team and able to travel to undertake fieldwork and attend conferences.
4. APPLICATION

Applications shall be called for with a closing date as set by the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences, and advertised on the ANU scholarships website. The application shall be submitted on the prescribed electronic form and supporting documentation forwarded to the School of History by email prior to the closing date.

5. SELECTION

Selection will be made on the basis of academic record and research potential once initial eligibility (Hl or Hl Equivalence) is met, in accordance with the ANU Scholarships Ranking Guidelines. Preference may be given to Indigenous students.

The award will be offered to a student by a selection committee Chaired by the Chief Investigator of the Laureate, which will also include the Head of School; the School HDR Convenor; and the Associate Dean of Education, ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences.

The Selection Committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The Selection Committee may also vary the number of awards and/or offer the award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the award is permitted to concurrently hold other scholarships, awards, grants and bursaries subject to the terms of the corresponding section in the conditions of award of the other scholarship/bursary/grant/award that they are holding.

During the tenure of the award, the recipient cannot be in receipt of another equivalent or major living allowance award/scholarship or salary to undertake the proposed program, providing a benefit greater than 75% of the stipend of this award.

7. DEFERMENT

The award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

The recipient is required to remain enrolled in a program of study for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy at the Australian National University in the program for which the award is offered.

A part-time award may be offered or approved if the student has reasons acceptable to the University that preclude full-time study for part or all of the course of study. In such cases the University must be satisfied that the reasons relate to caring commitments, a medical condition, a disability or other circumstance which limits the student’s capacity to undertake full-time study.
9. SUSPENSION OF AWARD

A recipient may apply for suspension of their award. The approval of a suspension will be at the discretion of the recipient’s College. A suspension may be appropriate to allow the recipient to gain work experience in industry or in exceptional circumstances, for compassionate reasons. The ANU shall advise the ARC of any approvals within three months in writing.

Suspensions for purposes other than specified above or which are for a period of over 12 months in duration, or which commences within the first six months of the project, without the written approval of the ARC will be a breach of this Agreement and may result in the immediate termination of, and/or recovery of funding.

The University may suspend an award where a recipient has:

a) outstanding fees;

b) an outstanding debt with the University; or

c) outstanding PhD milestone/s

An award will only be suspended once a reasonable amount of time (more than 20 working days) has passed since the fees and/or debt and/or milestones were due and once the University has advised the recipient in writing that the milestones, debt and/or fees are outstanding. Under these circumstances, the recipient will forfeit payment for the period of time that their award is suspended.

10. CESSATION OF AWARD

The award ceases:

(a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2; or

(b) on submission of the thesis for examination; or

(c) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences; or

(d) if a recipient is no longer meeting or has breached the conditions of award; or

(e) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Misconduct & Discipline Rules.
11. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

A recipient who is taking leave from their program, or changing intensity from full-time to part-time, is expected to submit the prescribed form in a timely manner and, where possible, in advance in order to avoid receiving an overpayment of their award. In circumstances where an overpayment does occur, the overpayments will generally be recovered in line with the ANU Overpayments Procedure.

In the situation where a recipient is overpaid an amount in excess of a full fortnightly disbursement, the University may recover the overpayment by withholding future stipend payments at the same rate that the stipend was overpaid.

12. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

The offer of an award is based on the information provided to the University. An award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment in offering the award.

13. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis section 6 and/or 7 of these conditions of award may be varied by the Dean on the recommendation of the Chair of Selection Committee.

14. TAXATION & CENTRELINK

Recipients are responsible for seeking taxation and Centrelink advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Scholarships/grants/awards may be regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis.

For information on how your award may affect your Centrelink benefits, please refer to this website: http://www.humanservices.gov.au/customer/enablers/income/

15. ACCOMMODATION

It is the recipient’s responsibility to obtain residential accommodation. Information on student accommodation and application forms are available from the University Accommodation Services. Information may be found on the Web at: http://www.anu.edu.au/students/services/accommodation
16. PUBLICITY

The recipient may be requested to participate in publicity for the award from time to time. This may include publicity in the state or territory of residence or of schooling. Recipients may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the award by publishing the names of the recipients. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences or Strategic Communications and Public Affairs Office of the University.
