FREILICH INDIGENOUS STUDENT AWARD

Applications are invited from students who are a member of the indigenous community and are enrolled in a Bachelor of Laws (Honours) degree course, including a double degree program, for the above mentioned award.

Eligibility

The Freilich Award in Law is available to a person who:

- is a member of the Indigenous community;
- is a successful applicant for entry to the first year of a program of study leading to the award of Bachelor of Laws (Honours) whether undertaken as a single degree or part of a double degree program;
- is a citizen of or holds permanent resident status in Australia; and,
- in the opinion of the ANU College of Law, have reached a standard that merits the Award.

The successful applicant must not have been previously enrolled in any tertiary degree or diploma program at a university or other institution of tertiary education whether in or outside Australia.

Closing date

Applications should be made on the appropriate application form (below). Applications close on the 31st January in the year the scholarship is being applied for.

Note for Referee

The applicant has named you as a referee in support of an application for the Freilich Indigenous Student Award, awarded by the ANU College of Law Scholarship Committee. The Award will be awarded to students who can demonstrate how it will assist them to develop their career aspirations. Please set out your support for the applicant on the basis of their career development in relation to the program of study. You may wish to comment also on the applicant’s academic or other achievements, and, if relevant, their personal circumstances.

The report is requested from you and, if supplied, received by the Scholarship Committee on a confidential basis and on the clear understanding that the Committee will do everything in its power to respect and maintain that confidence. The report will be disclosed only to those immediately involved in the selection process.

In your report please include how long you have known the applicant and in what capacity.

Referee questionnaire reports for consideration by the Scholarship Committee are required by the 31st January in the year the scholarship is being applied for.

Reports should be addressed to The Student Administration Manager and sent to:
