GEORGE ALEXANDER FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP
CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the Australian National University (“ANU”) may offer up to five (5) awards known as the George Alexander Foundation Scholarships (“the award”).

The objectives of the award are to support:
- commencing students who must move away from home in order to undertake an undergraduate degree at ANU;
- students who demonstrate strong academic merit, community involvement and leadership potential.

Funding for this award has been provided by the George Alexander Foundation (GAF). The Foundation was established by Mr George Alexander AM in 1972 to provide grants for public charitable purposes in Australia.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the award is three years. The award is paid in two instalments annually, and will be paid at the beginning of semester according to the payment schedule which is outlined in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of this award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to a prospective ANU student who:

(a) Is an Australian citizen or Australian permanent resident;
(b) has attained a minimum ATAR of 80 (or equivalent), excluding bonus points;
(c) is a year 12 school leaver (including students who have been on exchange or gap year programs for up to twelve months after completion), who has not previously completed an undergraduate degree;
(d) is required to reside away from home in order to undertake an undergraduate program at the ANU.

4. APPLICATION

Applications are called for with a closing date as set by the ANU and advertised on the ANU scholarships website. The application is submitted on the prescribed electronic form and supporting documentation forwarded by email to philanthropic.scholarships@anu.edu.au prior to the closing date.
5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of academic merit and written application. The award is offered to a student by a Selection Committee comprising of the Pro Vice-Chancellor (University Experience); a representative from Access, Inclusion & Wellbeing; one Associate Dean and a maximum of two representatives from the donor organisation.

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of awards and/or offer the award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funding allows).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the George Alexander Foundation Scholarship is permitted to concurrently hold other scholarships, awards, grants and bursaries subject to the terms of the corresponding section in the conditions of award of the other scholarship/bursary/grant/award that they are holding.

Failure to declare and obtain permission to hold another award or scholarship may result in the recipient being required to refund a payment or payments to the ANU, as determined by the Chair, ANU Awards Sub Committee or nominee.

7. DEFERMENT

The award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this award is required to enrol in a full-time load of 48 units per year. In exceptional circumstances, a scholar may be given permission by the Chair, Awards Sub Committee in collaboration with the George Alexander Foundation to hold the Scholarship on a part-time basis for a one semester only. In such a case the scholarship payment will be made on a pro-rata basis. The scholar must submit a written request and make a case citing the exceptional circumstances to hold the scholarship on a temporary part-time basis.

Recipients are expected to maintain an average GPA of 5.0 each semester (with the average being across all courses taken in a particular semester).

If a recipient is unable to achieve the GPA in any semester a formal warning is sent.

If the recipient does not meet the required GPA in a subsequent semester they risk having their award suspended or terminated.

A recipient is given the opportunity to explain their performance and how their performance can be remedied before a decision on the suspension or termination of an award is made.

9. SCHOLAR RESPONSIBILITIES

As a GAF Scholarship recipient they may be required to:

- promote the value of the Scholarship program both within and outside the ANU;
- participate in a network of GAF Scholars, with a focus on academic opportunities and community service as appropriate;
- participate in voluntary community service;
- submit a written report to ANU by the December of each year of the Award using the Foundation’s reporting template.

10. CESSATION OF AWARD

The award ceases or should be surrendered:

(a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2; or
(b) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;
(c) if a recipient fails to enrol as required in section 8;
(d) if a recipient changes to part-time enrolment without permission;
(e) if a recipient transfers to another institution;
(f) if a recipient fails to meet the minimum academic performance requirements;
(g) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Misconduct & Discipline Rules;

whichever is earliest.

In the event that a Scholarship is terminated, it will only be reactivated if it is determined that the termination occurred in error.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

The awarding of a scholarship/grant is based on the information provided to the University. An award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment in awarding the scholarship/grant.

12. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis section 6 and/or 7 of these conditions of award may be varied by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) on the recommendation of the Chair of Selection Committee. Variations should not contravene the GAF Scholarship Agreement.

13. TAXATION & CENTRELINK

Recipients are responsible for seeking taxation and Centrelink advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Scholarships/grants may be regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis.

For information on how your award may affect your Centrelink benefits, see this website http://www.humanservices.gov.au/customer/enablers/income/

14. ACCOMMODATION

On-campus accommodation is guaranteed to recipients of the GAF in their first year only, however first preferences can’t be guaranteed. For further information go to http://www.anu.edu.au/study/accommodation
