K.T. Tan PhD Scholarship

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

In 2018 the John Curtin School of Medical Research (“JCSMR”), in the ANU College of Health and Medicine (“the college’, will offer an award known as the K.T. Tan PhD Scholarship (“the award”).

The objective/s of the award are to attract a student of high calibre, with research qualifications and/or expertise, in vision sciences or a related field, to pursue graduate research for a PhD degree at the JCSMR while developing entrepreneurial skills for engagement with industry.

Funding for this award has been generously provided by Dr Suan Tan, in honour of her late father, K.T. Tan. Dr Tan completed her PhD at ANU in 1982. Her intention is to support work likely to lead to entrepreneurial activity, with a focus on developing new therapeutic interventions for the currently incurable, Dry Age-Related Macular Degeneration (AMD).

2. BENEFITS

Value: The value of the award will be stated in your letter of offer. The award will be paid in fortnightly instalments unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

HDR Fee Remission Merit Scholarship: International recipients will also be considered for a HDR Fee Remission Merit Scholarship, to cover the International Student Fees for the standard duration of the Higher Degree Research (HDR) program, subject to the recipient being ranked as competitive in a merit-based selection process.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all administrative fees by the prescribed date as set by the University each session. Recipients of this award are responsible for the Student Service Amenities Fee, OSHC, cost of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

Duration: The duration of a full-time award will be three years in the first instance or such shorter period as is stated in the letter of offer.

Periods of enrolment already undertaken for the PhD degree and periods of enrolment undertaken for the PhD degree during suspension of the award will be deducted from the duration of the award.

Periods of paid sick leave taken in accordance with Section 38 of the ANU Research Awards Rule 2017, and maternity/parental leave are additional to the normal duration of the award.

Extension: If eligible, a recipient may apply for an extension of the award by completing the Manage my Degree - HDR form. The maximum period of extension is one year and an extension may be sought only where the HDR program has been delayed by circumstances beyond the recipient’s control and is not of a personal nature.

Thesis Reimbursement: Reimbursements are paid to recipients of the award to assist with ancillary costs while undertaking an eligible HDR program.
Recipients receive a one-off reimbursement of up to $500 for services associated with the production of their thesis.

Recipients may apply for the reimbursement by submitting original tax invoice/receipts to the Examination and Graduations Office in person or by email to: researchthesis.enq@anu.edu.au.

The reimbursement must be claimed in accordance with the Australian National University’s thesis allowance requirements and within 12 months of submission of the thesis and no more than two years after the award ceases, unless exceptional circumstances can be demonstrated. A case outlining the exceptional circumstances must be made before approval for reimbursement can be considered.

PROGRAM & SCHOLARSHIP LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

Unpaid program and scholarship Leave: The University may approve unpaid program and scholarship leave of absence on personal grounds, which does not exceed a total period of 12 months during the period of the award, after which the recipient may resume the award. If the unpaid program and scholarship leave of absence exceeds 12 months, the recipient may not be eligible for resumption of the award.

An application for unpaid program and scholarship leave of absence for more than 12 months will only be considered if there are exceptional circumstances beyond the control of the recipient and must be approved by the Delegated Authority in the College.

Unpaid program and scholarship Leave is aggregated and awarded only in one-week blocks for a full-time recipient and two-week blocks for a part-time recipient.

Recipients may apply for unpaid program and scholarship leave by completing the relevant section of the Manage my Degree - HDR form in ISIS.

Payments for this award will not continue during this type of leave.

Paid Recreation Leave: Recipients are entitled to a maximum of 20 working days paid recreation leave for each year of the award. Leave entitlements may be accrued over the life of the award but are forfeited when the award ceases.

Recipients may apply for paid recreational leave by notifying their Chair of Panel in writing.

Paid recreation leave does not extend the period of support for the award.

Paid Medical Leave: Recipients are entitled to a maximum of 10 working days paid medical leave for each year of the award. Leave entitlements may be accrued over the life of the award but are forfeited when the award ceases.

Recipients may apply for paid medical leave by notifying their Chair of Panel in writing.

Paid medical leave does not extend the period of support for the award.

Additional Paid Medical Leave: In addition to the maximum of 10 working days paid medical leave for each year of the award, recipients are entitled to additional paid medical leave to a maximum of 60 working days for the duration of the award for periods of illness where the recipient has insufficient medical leave entitlements available, on provision of a medical certificate. Medical certificates must:

(a) be signed by a registered medical practitioner;
(b) provide the likely duration of the recipient’s illness;
(c) certify that the recipient is unable to pursue the HDR program because of the illness.

Additional paid medical leave entitlements may be used to cover leave for recipients with family caring responsibilities.

Additional paid medical leave is aggregated and awarded only in one-week blocks for a full-time recipients and two-week blocks for a part-time recipients.

Recipients may apply for additional paid medical leave by completing the relevant section of the Manage my Degree - HDR form in ISIS.

Additional paid medical leave extends the period of support for the award.

Paid Maternity Leave: Recipients who have completed 12 months of their award are entitled to a maximum of 60 working days paid maternity leave over the duration of the award. This also applies if the recipient is the legal parent and primary care-giver of an adopted child:

(a) less than five years of age;
(b) not a step-child of the recipient; and
(c) has not previously lived continuously with the recipient for 6 months or more.

Paid maternity Leave is aggregated and awarded only in one-week blocks for a full-time recipients and two-week blocks for a part-time recipient.

Recipients may apply for paid maternity leave by completing the relevant section of the Manage my Degree - HDR form in ISIS.

Paid Maternity leave extends the period of support for the award.

Paid Parental Leave: A recipient who is the partner of a woman giving birth may be entitled to five days’ paid parenting leave at the time of the birth provided the award has been held for at least 12 months at the time of application. The application for paid parenting leave must be accompanied by a medical certificate confirming the date of birth.

Paid parenting Leave is aggregated and awarded only in one-week blocks for a full-time recipients and two-week blocks for a part-time recipient.

Recipients may apply for paid parental leave by completing the relevant section of the Manage my Degree - HDR form in ISIS.

Paid Parental leave extends the period of support for the award.

Maximum Leave Entitlements

Under no circumstances can the program and Scholarship leave of absence exceed two years in total (which includes personal, medical, maternity and paternity leave).

3. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available to a prospective student who is:

(a) a domestic or international student; and
(b) is enrolling full-time in a program of study for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, in the area of AMD research, at the John Curtin School of Medical Research at the Australian National University; and

K.T. Tan PhD Scholarship (735/2018)
(c) holds an Australian Bachelor Honours degree and research publications and/or relevant experience.

4. APPLICATION

Applications shall be called for with a closing date as set by JCSMR and Clear Vision Research and advertised on the ANU scholarships website. The application shall be submitted on the prescribed electronic form and supporting documentation forwarded to JCSMR by email prior to the closing date.

5. SELECTION

Selection will be made on the basis of the applicant’s qualifications and research potential. Other factors such as experience with industry, science communication, vision science and molecular biology will also be taken into account.

The award will be offered to a student by the JCSMR Scholarship Committee, chaired by the Associate Director HDR for JCSMR, and a panel of at least two JCSMR academic staff members, including at least one academic staff member who is part of the Clear Vision Research laboratories at JCSMR.

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of awards and/or offer the award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the award is permitted to concurrently hold other scholarships, awards, grants and bursaries subject to the terms of the corresponding section in the conditions of award of the other scholarship/bursary/grant/award that they are holding.

During the tenure of the award, the recipient cannot be in receipt of another equivalent or major living allowance award/scholarship or salary to undertake the proposed HDR program, providing a benefit greater than 75 per cent of the stipend of this award.

7. DEFERMENT

The award must be taken up no later than the date specified in the letter of offer, unless in special circumstances another date has been approved by the JCSMR HDR Delegated Authority.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

The recipient is required to remain enrolled full-time in a program of study for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy at the Australian National University in the program for which the award is offered.

This award cannot be transferred to another institution, College, School or laboratory.

K.T. Tan PhD Scholarship (735/2018)
9. SUSPENSION OF AWARD

A recipient may apply for suspension of their award. The approval of a suspension will be at the discretion of the recipient’s College. A suspension may be appropriate if a recipient is studying at another institution and receives an award for that study. In these circumstances the duration of the award will be reduced by the periods of study undertaken towards the degree during suspension of the award (unless the study was undertaken overseas as part of a Commonwealth Government financially supported international postgraduate research scholarship or award).

The University may suspend an award where a recipient has:

a) outstanding fees;

b) an outstanding debt with the University; or

c) outstanding HDR program milestone/s

The award will be suspended when at least five working days have passed since the University advised the recipient in writing that the milestones, debt and/or fees are outstanding, until the milestones have been met or the outstanding fees and/or debt have been paid. Under these circumstances, the recipient will forfeit payment of the award for the period of time that their award is suspended.

10. CESSATION OF AWARD

The award ceases or should be surrendered:

(a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2; or

(b) on submission of the thesis for examination; or

(c) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences; or

(d) if a recipient is no longer meeting or has breached the conditions of award; or

(e) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Misconduct & Discipline Rules.

11. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

A recipient who is taking leave from their program, or changing their enrolment from full-time to part-time, is expected to submit the prescribed Manage My Degree - HDR form in a timely manner and, where possible, in advance in order to avoid receiving an overpayment of their award. In circumstances where an overpayment does occur, the overpayments will generally be recovered in line with the ANU Overpayments Procedure.

In the situation where a recipient is overpaid an amount in excess of a full fortnightly disbursement, the University may recover the overpayment by withholding future award payments at the same rate that the award was overpaid.
In cases of overpayment or outstanding financial debts to the University, service restrictions are applied to students. Service restrictions include temporarily withholding students’ access to:

(a) enrol or re-enrol in a program or course;
(b) obtain a transcript of academic record;
(c) acquire results of any assessment in a course or program;
(d) receive a degree, diploma, certificate or other Award of the University.

12. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

The offer of an award is based on the information provided by the student to the University. An award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment in offering the award.

13. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis section 6 and/or 7 of these conditions of award may be varied by the Deputy Dean Education on the recommendation of the Chair of the Selection Committee.

14. TAXATION & CENTRELINK

Recipients are responsible for seeking taxation and Centrelink advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Scholarships/grants/awards may be regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis.

For information on how your award may affect your Centrelink benefits, please refer to this website: http://www.humanservices.gov.au/customer/enablers/income/

15. ACCOMMODATION

It is the recipient’s responsibility to obtain residential accommodation. Information on student accommodation and application forms are available from the University Accommodation Services. Information may be found on the Web at: http://www.anu.edu.au/students/services/accommodation

16. PUBLICITY

The recipient may be requested to participate in publicity for the award from time to time. This may include publicity in the state or territory of residence or of schooling. Recipients may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the award by publishing the names of the recipients. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the ANU College of Health and Medicine or Strategic Communications and Public Affairs Office of the University.
17. CONTACT WITH THE ANU COLLEGE

All enquiries regarding the award and changes, issues, or further information after acceptance should be made to:

   John Curtin School of Medical Research
   College of Health & Medicine
   E-mail: jcsmr.hdr.sa@anu.edu.au

18. DISCLAIMER

The recipient of this award is subject to The Australian National University Act 1991 as amended, and to the Statutes, Rules, Policies and Procedures of the University.

This award does not carry any commitment by the University for future employment.

These conditions of award should be read in conjunction with the University’s Research Awards Rule and Candidature and Supervision Policies.

19. RELATED POLICIES, PROCEDURES, RULES & RESOURCES

Research Scholarship Information (including reimbursement and claim forms) - http://www.anu.edu.au/students/scholarships-support/research-scholarship-information