THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

ANU NATIONAL UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF AWARD

ANU National Undergraduate Scholars are:

- selected on the basis of outstanding academic achievement at school with an ATAR or equivalent of 99.9 or above; or
- selected for Art or Music on the basis of outstanding achievement in the entry requirements including portfolio or audition. Students enrolling in a combined program will be considered for the Art and Music scholarships. Successful Art and Music scholars in combined programs will hold the scholarship for a maximum of four years unless the ATAR was 99.90 or above.

ANU National Undergraduate Scholars must:

- have completed their Year 12 or equivalent schooling either the year before commencement at ANU or the year before that and not previously been enrolled in a tertiary degree or diploma;
- be citizens of Australia or New Zealand or holders of an Australian permanent resident visa or permanent humanitarian visa;
- enrol in and, unless otherwise approved, remain enrolled in, the undergraduate degree with honours or combined degree program with honours at the University on a full-time basis in which the scholar is enrolled at his or her first Census Date;
- seek permission to continue to receive the scholarship if a transfer to another program is approved during the life of the scholarship. Under normal circumstances those scholars will be given permission to continue to receive their scholarship for the period which would have covered the remaining duration of the program in which they were originally enrolled, or the minimum duration of the new program, whichever is the lesser.

ANU National Undergraduate Scholars may:

- retain the scholarship whilst on approved international exchange;
- be requested to participate in publicity of the scholarship scheme from time to time.

ANU National Undergraduate Scholars receive:

- $12,500 per year for each year of the duration of the scholarship.
ANU National Undergraduate Scholars are responsible for:

- their academic achievement which is expected to be at the appropriate level which means a Distinction average in each semester (with the average being across all courses taken in a particular semester) as set out in the Policy for Academic Progress of Undergraduate Scholarship Holders located at: http://info.anu.edu.au/policies;
- ensuring that their personal and account details held by the University are kept up to date;
- meeting all costs associated with their studies including charges imposed as a Commonwealth Supported Student, books and incidental expenses;
- obtaining their own residential accommodation. Information about student accommodation may be found at: http://accom.anu.edu.au/

Part-time enrolment whilst on a scholarship

Approval for the scholarship to be retained for part-time enrolment will only be given under exceptional circumstances such as a medical condition. An application for approval should be made in writing, with supporting documentation, to the Scholarships and Prizes Office, Division of Registrar and Student Services, for consideration by the Chair, University Awards Committee.

Concurrent holding of other scholarships

ANU National Undergraduate Scholars, in exceptional circumstances, may be given permission to hold any other scholarship, bursary or award concurrently with the scholarship.

Tim Beckett
Registrar, Division of Registrar and Student Services
19 November 2009

I, ............................................................... accept the ANU National Undergraduate Scholarship as set out above and in the letter dated .................

Signed: ..........................................................

Date: ..........................................................

Student ID: ..................................................

Academic Program: ..................................................