NATASHA LINARD SCHOLARSHIP FOR WOMEN IN ENGINEERING & TECHNOLOGY

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year The ANU College of Engineering & Computer Science (“the College”) may offer an award known as the Natasha Linard Scholarship for Women in Engineering & Technology (“the award”).

The objective of the award is to support female students who are undertaking their 3rd (or later) year, of an undergraduate program at the College. The award aims to help build the recipient’s leadership skills in technology, business and community areas, and to develop a mentoring relationship with prominent professionals in the private and public sectors.

Funding for the award has been provided by the College, and by donors who have contributed to the Natasha Linard Endowment. Following the sad passing of Dr Natasha Linard, a member of the first undergraduate engineering intake at the ANU, the College has established the endowment and scholarship in her name.

Dr Natasha Linard was an outstanding and inspiring role model for female engineers. She was one of the first ANU female students to graduate with a Bachelor of Engineering and, subsequently, with a PhD in Engineering.

The scholarship will continue her dedication to mentoring female students and early professionals.

Recipients of the Natasha Linard Scholarship for Women in Engineering & Technology will carry her name with pride and, like her, will no doubt become prominent members of the engineering profession.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the award is stated in the letter of offer. The award includes a stipend, plus coverage of tuition fees associated with undertaking the YWCA ‘She Leads’ Diploma of Leadership and Management.

The stipend will be paid in a single instalment at the beginning of the semester following the announcement of the award, unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer. Tuition fee coverage will be applied when the recipient applies for the She Leads Diploma.

Recipients of this award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.
