1. There shall be scholarships for award by Council each year which shall be known as the Sir Geoffrey Yeend Honours Scholarships.

2. The number of scholarships available each year shall be determined on the basis of the income available from the Sir Geoffrey Yeend Scholarship Fund and other information available.

3. Each scholarship shall be valued at not less than $A5,000 per annum. The scholarship stipend will be payable in two instalments, one at the beginning of each semester.

4. The scholarship shall be held for a maximum of two academic semesters while the successful student is enrolled full-time in the Honours Year or in the final year of a program of study leading to the award of the degree of Bachelor with Honours where the honours component is an integral part of the final year.

5. The scholarship shall be available to students who have been enrolled at the ANU or another university in a program of study leading to the award of a degree of bachelor and who are undertaking Honours or combined Honours in one of the areas of political science, visual and performing arts, and Asian studies.

6. Applications shall be called for once each year and the closing date will be 31 October. Applicants may specify whether they intend to commence Honours in first semester or second semester of the following year.

7. The Delegated Authority shall determine, in any year, whether academic references shall be requested.

8. Selection for the scholarship within the areas of political science, visual and performing arts, and Asian studies shall be primarily on academic merit. The Delegated Authority may also take into consideration the specific field of study in which the candidate has expressed an interest and the availability of appropriate supervision.

9. Applicants may be Australian citizens, permanent residents or international students.

10. A student may not hold concurrently with a Sir Geoffrey Yeend Honours Scholarship another ANU administered scholarship which has been awarded specifically for the Honours Year or any of the following: an ANU National Undergraduate Scholarship; ANU Region Scholarship; ANU National Achievement Scholarship; Bachelor of Philosophy (H) Scholarship or any scholarship administered by the University which is equivalent to or greater in value than an ANU National Undergraduate Scholarship.

11. A scholarship shall not be awarded if, in any year, in the opinion of the Delegated Authority, there is no applicant of sufficient merit.
12. Except with the permission of the Delegated Authority, the successful applicant shall enrol and remain enrolled on a full-time basis at this University in either the Honours Year of a program of study leading to the award of the degree of Bachelor with Honours or in the final year of a program of study leading to the award of the degree of Bachelor with Honours where the honours component is an integral part of the final year.

13. With the approval of the Delegated Authority, a successful applicant may commence the Honours Program in either first or second semester of the academic year.

14. The scholarship may be terminated where a successful applicant:

(a) fails to enrol for the Honours Year of a program of study leading to the award of the degree of Bachelor with Honours within one year of the award of the scholarship;

(b) changes to part-time enrolment without the permission of the relevant Scholarship Committee in the College;

(c) withdraws from the program before completing the year;

(d) has not, in the opinion of the Delegated Authority, acting, if necessary, on the advice of the relevant Dean, performed at a satisfactory academic level in the first semester of the Honours Program.

15. Should the scholarship be terminated the Delegated Authority, acting, if necessary, on the advice of the relevant Dean, shall determine if any or all of the scholarship monies should be repaid.
