THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES HONOURS SCHOLARSHIP

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

There shall be a number of scholarships for award each year which shall be known as the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences Honours Scholarships.

2. VALUE

The annual value of the scholarship will be as set out in a formal letter of offer, and will be paid in two equal instalments, one at the beginning of the first semester of study, and the other at the beginning of the second semester of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

A person shall be eligible to apply who is an Australian or New Zealand citizen, holds Permanent Residence Status in Australia or is an international student and either:

(a) is currently enrolled or has been enrolled at this University or another university in a program of study leading to the award of a degree of Bachelor; or

(b) is currently enrolled or has been enrolled at this University or another university in a combined program leading to two degrees, one of which will lead to the award of the degree of Bachelor with honours.

4. APPLICATION and SELECTION

Applications shall be called for with a set closing date as advertised from time to time by the College. Applications are to be submitted on the prescribed electronic form. An applicant who is not currently a student of this University must apply separately and concurrently for admission to the University.

The Selection Committee shall determine, in any year, whether academic references shall be requested.

The College Education Dean approves the award of these Scholarships.

Selection may take into account the fields of study in which the candidates have expressed an interest, the reports of two academic referees, if sought, and the availability of appropriate supervision as certified by the College Education Dean and the distribution of awards among internal and external applicants.

A scholarship shall not be awarded if, in the opinion of the College Education Dean there is no applicant of sufficient merit.

5. CONCURRENT HOLDING of SCHOLARSHIPS

A scholar must obtain permission from the College Education Dean to hold any other scholarship or award concurrently with the College of Arts and Social Sciences Honours Scholarship.

6. ENROLMENT

Except with the permission of the College Education Dean, the successful applicant shall enrol and remain enrolled on a full-time basis at this University in the Honours Year of a program of study leading to the award of a degree of Bachelor with Honours offered by the College of Arts and Social Sciences.
7. COMMENCEMENT

   With the approval of the College Education Dean, a successful applicant may commence the Honours Program in either first or second semester of the academic year.

8. TENURE

   The scholarships are for one year, payable from the date on which the course is taken up in Canberra. Scholarship instalments will be made at the beginning of each semester of the Honours year.

9. TERMINATION

   The scholarship may be terminated where a successful applicant:

   (a) fails to enrol for the Honours Year of a program of study leading to the award of the degree of Bachelor with Honours within one year of the award of the scholarship;

   (b) changes to part-time enrolment without the permission of the College Education Dean;

   (c) withdraws from the program before completing the year;

   (d) has not, in the opinion of the College Education Dean, performed at a satisfactory academic level in the first semester of the Honours Program.

   Should the scholarship be terminated the College Education Dean, shall determine if any or all of the scholarship monies should be repaid.

10. PUBLICITY

    It is anticipated that the College of Arts and Social Sciences Honours Scholars may be requested to participate in publicity of the Scholarships from time to time. This may include publicity in the state or territory of residence or of schooling. Scholars may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the Scholarships by publishing the names of the scholars. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the College of Arts and Social Sciences Marketing and Communications Office.

11. TAXATION IMPLICATIONS

    It is the Scholar’s responsibility to determine the taxation implications of the award, if any, which apply to their individual circumstances.

12. EMPLOYMENT

    The award does not carry any commitment by the University for future employment.

13. ACCOMMODATION

    It is the scholars’ responsibility to obtain residential accommodation. Information on student accommodation and application forms is available from the University Accommodation Services. Information may also be found on the Web at: http://accom.anu.edu.au/HomePage.asp

14. CONTACT WITH THE COLLEGE EDUCATION DEAN

    Contact with the College Education Dean should be made in writing through the College of Arts & Social Sciences Student Office. The office is in the Beryl Rawson Building. Telephone (02) 6125 2898. Email: students.cass@anu.edu.au
