THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

ANU CHINESE LANGUAGE SCHOLARSHIP
FOR ACHIEVEMENT IN MODERN CHINESE 4

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. There shall be one scholarship for award by the Council of the University each year which shall be known as the ANU Chinese Language Scholarship.

2. The scholarship shall be available for award to the candidate who has completed the course Modern Chinese 4, and from amongst candidates under consideration by the Selection Committee, has achieved the best overall result. Assessment of the best overall result may include consideration of: assessment throughout the semester, tutorial performance and the final course mark. The Selection Committee may also take into account the previously attained level of academic achievement in Chinese language courses taken earlier at this University.

3. The scholarship shall be awarded on the recommendation of a Selection Committee which shall be Chaired by the Head of the China Centre (or nominee) and shall include the Sub-Dean and one other member of the academic staff of the Faculty of Asian Studies.

4. The scholarship shall be valued at not less than $1,800 in total. The scholarship shall be paid in equal instalments at the beginning of each semester.

5. The successful scholar may hold the scholarship while enrolled on either a full-time or part-time basis. If the enrolment is part-time the scholarship shall be paid on a pro-rata basis.

6. The scholarship is tenable for the two consecutive academic semesters for which it is offered when the scholar is a full-time student. A scholar who is part-time may hold the scholarship during four consecutive semesters.

7. The successful applicant will be enrolled in and remain enrolled in the program leading to the award of either the Bachelor of Asian Studies (studying for the Chinese Language Major) or the Bachelor of Asian Studies (Specialist Chinese) or in a combined program which includes either of the degree programs specified above.

8. The successful applicant is also expected, for the duration of the scholarship, to enrol in and remain enrolled in Chinese language courses offered by the Faculty of Asian Studies.

9. It is expected that a scholarship will be taken up at the commencement of, or during, the academic year for which it is offered. Deferment of the scholarship will not be permitted.

10. With the permission of the Selection Committee, a scholar will be eligible to hold concurrently other scholarship offered by the University or another source.

11. A scholarship terminates at the conclusion of the consecutive academic semesters for which it has been awarded or on the date on which the scholar ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences, whichever is the earlier.

12. The University may terminate a scholarship before this time if the scholar does not fulfil her/his obligations or if, in the opinion of the Dean of the Faculty, satisfactory academic progress in Chinese language studies is not being made by the scholar.
13. If a scholarship is terminated by the University, or if the scholar withdraws from the course before completing the year, then the scholarship shall be surrendered.

14. The Dean of the Faculty may, acting on the advice of the Head of the China Centre determine whether any refund of scholarship monies is payable and may determine that the scholarship instalment for the semester in which termination, enrolment change or withdrawal occurred be refunded by the scholar to the University either in part or in full.

15. The Dean of the Faculty may, acting on the advice of the Head of the China Centre recommend the suspension of the scholarship on the receipt of a written request from the scholar with supporting documentation setting out the medical or other circumstances on which the request is based.

16. A scholarship shall not be awarded when, in the opinion of the Selection Committee, there is no applicant of sufficient merit.
