THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

THE LEONARD AND MARGARET DOMAN UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP FOR FLUTE

CONDITIONS of AWARD

1. GENERAL

1.1 Eligibility
All new applicants commencing a Bachelor of Music degree in Flute Performance will be considered for a Leonard and Margaret Doman Undergraduate Scholarship/s for Flute.

1.2 Entry Requirements
All applicants must meet the entry requirements for the School of Music and must demonstrate outstanding musical ability and accomplishment, which will be assessed at audition and interview and by entrance tests and/or viva voce. All new applicants will be automatically considered for the scholarship/s, and therefore will not be required to formally apply.

1.3 Candidature
A scholarship/s is awarded on the condition that the scholar is admitted to and continues to pursue a full time undergraduate course of study leading to the degree of Bachelor of Music in Flute Performance at the Australian National University.

1.4 Deferment
The School of Music in the College of Arts and Social Sciences does not permit students to defer the commencement of their program. The scholarship/s will be taken up at the commencement of the academic year or semester in which it is offered.

1.5 Publicity
It is anticipated that Leonard and Margaret Doman Undergraduate Scholarship holders may be requested to participate in publicity of the scholarship scheme from time to time. Scholars may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the scheme by publishing the names of the scholars. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the Manager, Outreach & Recruitment, Faculty of Arts or the Marketing & Communication Division of the University.

1.6 Performance Requirements
A Leonard and Margaret Doman scholar may be required to take part in up to two designated concerts per year for the benefit of the Leonard and Margaret Doman Scholarship Fund.

1.7 University Regulations
A scholar is subject to The Australian National University Act 1991 as amended, to the Statutes and Rules of the University as made from time to time, and to resolutions of the Council and the University Awards Committee.

1.8 Concurrent holding of other Scholarships/Awards
The scholarship is awarded on the condition that, during the tenure of the scholarship, the scholar is not in receipt of another equivalent or major award/scholarship or salary to undertake the proposed program.
2. TENURE

2.1 Commencement
The scholarship/s commence from the first day of the teaching period in the first semester in which they are offered, unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer or approved by the Dean, College of Arts and Social Sciences.

2.2 Duration
The scholarship/s is tenable, subject to satisfactory academic progress, for one year of the undergraduate degree program as set out in the letter of offer, or as subsequently approved by the University Awards Committee.

2.3 Attendance
A scholar is expected to be in attendance at the University at the commencement of the first teaching period and to remain in full-time enrolment during the University teaching periods or semesters during the duration of the scholarship. If a scholar is absent from the University through illness or for any other reason approval must have been sought and obtained from the College of Arts and Social Sciences for ‘program leave’ from the Program.

2.4 Level of Performance
A scholar is expected to achieve at least an average grade of Distinction in each semester during the tenure of the scholarship.

2.5 Termination
A scholarship normally terminates at the conclusion of the year for which it has been awarded. The University may terminate a scholarship before this time if the scholar does not fulfil her/his obligations or if, in the opinion of the University Awards Committee, the scholar’s academic progress in the approved program is not being made satisfactorily.

3. SELECTION PROCEDURE

3.1 Selection Committee
The scholarship shall be awarded on the recommendation of a selection committee comprising the Head of the School of Music, the Head of the Woodwind Area in the School of Music, and one or more academic staff members as appropriate.

The Committee shall select for the scholarship a person who, in the opinion of the Committee is deemed to display an outstanding level of musical ability and accomplishment as a Flautist. They shall also, in the opinion of the Committee, possess the potential to make an outstanding contribution as a musician.

4. SCHOLARSHIP
The Leonard and Margaret Doman Undergraduate Scholarship/s for Flute provide an amount as determined by the Dean of the College of Arts and Social Sciences, from year to year. The amount is set out in the attached formal letter of offer. The amount is payable in two equal instalments (at the beginning of each semester), for one academic year. Scholars are required to meet all costs associated with their studies including accommodation, books, music and incidental expenses. The scholarship does not provide exemption from payment under the Commonwealth supported students scheme (HECS-HELP), or the International Student Fees.
