Dear [Redacted]

Freedom of Information Requests 201800005

I refer to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act 1982. I have taken your request to be for access to:

Any email messages and attachments that either Professor Marnie Hughes-Warrington or Professor Brian Schmidt had with the federal Department of Education and Training that end in the suffix @education.gov.au, from December 1 2017 to February 8 2018.

The scope of this request is limited to emails and attachments that uses the keywords "Diploma of Languages", "DipLang", "Mid-Year Economic and Financial Outlook" or "MYEFO".

As the Freedom of Information (FOI) delegate I find that:

- a search was conducted of the records of the University for documents within the scope of your request and 2 documents were located that relate to your request

I have decided, as an officer authorised under section 23(1) of the FOI Act to make decisions in relation to FOI requests, that:

- 1 document is suitable for full release
- 1 document is partially exempt from release under Section 47F

For your information, I have attached a document schedule and relevant exemptions applied.

Section 47F of the Act provides that:

1. A document is conditionally exempt if its disclosure under this Act would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information about any person (including a deceased person).

2. In determining whether the disclosure of the document would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information, an agency or Minister must have regard to the following matters:
   a. the extent to which the information is known;
   b. whether the person to whom the information relates is known to be (or to have been) associated with the matters dealt with in the document;
   c. the availability of the information from publicly accessible sources;
   d. any other matters that the agency or Minister consider relevant.
Personal Information means information or an opinion (including information forming part of a database), whether true or not, and whether recorded in a material form or not, about an individual whose identity is apparent, or can reasonably be ascertained, from the information or opinion.

I have determined that parts of the documents include personal information of third parties and the information contained in the documents readily identifies natural persons, the information directly relates to them and the information says something about them. I have also determined that the public release of the information would affect the individuals’ personal privacy interests.

In reaching my decision, I considered: the extent to which the information is well known; whether the persons identified in your request are known to be or have been associated with the matters dealt with in the information and whether this information is publicly available.

In relation to factors favouring disclosure I believe the following are relevant:

(a) the general public interest in access to information under the Act;
(b) the general public interest to scrutinise the operations of a government agency.

In relation to the factors against disclosure, I believe the following are relevant:

(c) the extent to which the information is well known;
(d) the availability of the information from publicly accessible sources; and
(e) the likely impact on the individuals if the personal information were to be released; and
(f) whether the individuals have a reasonable expectation of privacy in the information.

I have considered the public interest factors in favour and against disclosure and I find that the factors at (c) to (f) outweigh the factors in favour of disclosure. Considering all the circumstances I find that material contained in the identified documents would be exempt under section 47F of the Act. Therefore, I have exempted parts of the documents identifying personal information of individuals and information detailing the personal affairs of individuals.
