THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS

CBE OUTSTANDING INTERN OF THE YEAR PRIZE

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. There shall be up to 4 prizes of $500 for award each year which shall be known as the CBE Outstanding Intern of the Year Prize. Up to 2 prizes shall be awarded in each semester.

2. The prizes shall be awarded to the student(s) who, in that year:

   (i) were enrolled in CBEA3070 or CBEA6070 in a program leading to the award of an undergraduate or postgraduate degree in the ANU College of Business and Economics;
   (ii) achieved a High Distinction grade in the course;
   (iii) were nominated by their internship hosts for the award;
   (iv) submitted a 2-minute video application stating (a) what they did above and beyond the expectations of the hosts, (b) how they made an impact to the business culture of the internship host, and (c) what benefits they have delivered to the internship host that exceeded their expectations; and
   (v) were selected by a committee appointed by CBE Associate Dean (Education).

3. If the courses cease to be offered, with the approval of the Dean of the ANU College of Business and Economics following discussion with the donor, the prize shall be awarded for other courses the content of which is similar.

4. If, in any year, no students achieve results that, in the opinion of the Dean of the ANU College of Business and Economics, justify awarding the prizes in that year, the prizes shall not be awarded.

5. The funding for the prizes will be donated by internship hosts and located in the CBE Engaged Learning account.

6. If the funding for the prizes is not received, the prizes shall not be awarded.

7. This donor prize will be reviewed in 2018, or earlier if circumstances require a review.

8. If a student is found to have breached academic integrity, by way of student misconduct or poor academic practice, they are no longer eligible to be awarded the prize, by non-award or rescission, and the next eligible student will be nominated for the prize.
