THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS

ANU COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS PRIZE FOR FIRST YEAR ECONOMICS

Conditions of Award

1. There shall be a prize of $500 for award each year which shall be known as the ANU College of Business and Economics Prize for First Year Economics.

2. The prize shall be awarded each year to the student who, in that year:
   (i.) was enrolled in a program leading to the award of a degree of Bachelor in the University; and
   (ii.) achieved the best result as shown by the award of the highest aggregate mark in the courses Microeconomics 1 (ECON1101), and one of either Macroeconomics 1 (ECON1102), or Economics 1 Honours (ECON1100). For students enrolled in Economics 1 Honours, only the Macroeconomics 1 component of their Economics 1 Honours course mark will be used for the purposes of award consideration.

3. If any of the courses specified in 2 (ii), cease to be offered, the prize shall be awarded in respect of another course the content of which, in the opinion of the Dean of the ANU College of Business and Economics, is similar to the content of the course.

4. A student is not eligible to be awarded the prize in any year if:
   (i.) the student is making a second or subsequent attempt at any of the courses relevant to the award of the prize; or
   (ii.) the student has previously pursued a course of study in a course, unit or subject (whether at the Australian National University or another tertiary education institution), the content of which, is in the opinion of the Dean of the ANU College of Business and Economics, substantially similar to the content of any of the courses for which the prize is to be awarded.

5. If, in any year, two or more students achieve the same highest aggregate mark, the prize awarded in that year shall be divided equally between them.

6. If, in any year, no student achieves results that, in the opinion of the Dean of the ANU College of Business and Economics, justify awarding the prize, the prize shall not be awarded in that year.
