THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING AND COMPUTER SCIENCE

THE DEAN’S PRIZE

Conditions of Award

1. There shall be a prize of $350 for award each year which shall be known as The Dean’s Prize.

2. The prize shall be awarded to the student who, in that year:
   (i) completed the requirements to be awarded the degree of Bachelor with Honours in the ANU College of Engineering and Computer Science;
   (ii) achieved First Class Honours in that year; and
   (iii) has an academic record of sufficient distinction.

3. A student shall be deemed to have achieved ‘sufficient distinction’ if the student’s academic performance, relative to the performance of students in the current and previous years who were enrolled in the same degree program, was within the top 50% of all First Class Honours students.

4. A student may receive the award of the prize on more than one occasion should that student complete more than one Bachelor degree course with Honours offered in the ANU College of Engineering and Computer Science.

5. A student is not eligible to be awarded the prize in any year if:
   (i) the student is making a second or subsequent attempt at any of the courses; or
   (ii) the student has previously pursued a course of study in a course, unit or subject (whether at the University or another tertiary education institution), the content of which, is in the opinion of the Dean and Director of the ANU College of Engineering and Computer Science, substantially similar to the content of any of the courses for which the prize is to be awarded.

6. If, in any year, two or more students equally merit the award of the prize, each shall receive the prize money in full.

7. If, in any year, no student achieves results that, in the opinion of the Dean and Director of the ANU College of Engineering and Computer Science, justify awarding the prize in that year, the prize shall not be awarded in that year.
