THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS

BRIAN BROGAN PRIZE FOR INDIGENOUS STUDENTS

Conditions of Award

1. There shall be a prize of $1200 for award each year which shall be known as the ANU College of Business and Economics Brian Brogan Prize for Indigenous Students.

2. The prize shall be awarded each year to the student who, in that year:
   (i) was enrolled in a program leading to the award of a degree of Bachelor in the ANU College of Business and Economics;
   (ii) achieved the best result as shown by the award of the highest aggregate mark at the completion of first year amongst all enrolled Indigenous students; and
   (iii) identifies as an Australian Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander and is accepted as such by the community/ies in which s/he has been or with which s/he is associated.

3. If, in any year, two or more eligible students achieve the same aggregate top mark, the prize awarded in that year shall be divided equally between them.

4. If, in any year, no student achieves results that, in the opinion of the Dean of the ANU College of Business and Economics justify awarding the prize in that year, the Dean may award the prize to up to six students from ANU Colleges other than the College of Business and Economics who, in that year:
   (i) were enrolled in a program leading to the award of a degree of Bachelor in the ANU;
   (ii) achieved the best result as shown by the award of the highest aggregate mark at the completion of first year amongst all enrolled Indigenous students; and
   (iii) identified as an Australian Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander and were accepted as such by the community/ies in which they had been or with which they were associated.
