How to Apply for a Degree Transfer

These instructions are for students intending to transfer degrees. Once you have selected your new degree go to the ANU Student Gateway to start: http://www.anu.edu.au/
Select Current Students and then press the ISIS button.

Use the STUDENT ID NUMBER and PASSWORD given to you to LOGIN. If at any time during your session ISIS times out, you will need to refresh your browser in order to log back in.

Select Apply for Degree Transfer using the drop down menu. This is found by selecting Main Menu (Compass in top-right of screen) > Navigator > ISIS > Degree Management > Apply for Degree Transfer
Read through the information on the Apply for Degree Transfer page and then select the Next button to start your application.

Apply for Degree Transfer

Undergraduate students can apply for degree transfer for Second Semester, 2016.

For deadline dates, please refer to Transferring between Degrees.

You may be eligible to apply for degree transfer.

Important Information to Consider

- Before applying to change your degree, it is important that you consider the implications:
  - Will you be able to meet the degree requirements?
  - Understand that tuition fees might be different for the courses you choose.
  - The change of degree may extend the duration of your study.
  - You may only submit one degree transfer per deadline.

Admission Requirements

Transferring to a new degree is an act of admission and all applications will be assessed against admission requirements. To review the admission requirements for the degree you wish to transfer to, please go to Programs and Courses.

You must complete 48 units of tertiary study (1.0 EFTSL equivalent) as part of your admission assessment. Applicants for transfer with less than 48 units of tertiary study will be assessed on their entrance rank which does not include bonus points.

Scholarship and Sponsorship

Students with scholarship should be aware that transferring to a new degree may affect their eligibility. Students should check the conditions of award for their scholarship and confirm that their scholarship will not be jeopardised by changing degrees.

For sponsored students, a degree transfer will require a new sponsorship agreement to be setup.

The top of the application will show your current degree.

If any details are incorrect, please contact Student Central at student@anu.edu.au or 135 ANU (268) for assistance.

Select the Admit Term for your Degree Transfer. The Admit Term is the semester/session/trimester that you wish to commence studying courses under the new degree. This will only allow you to select the semester/session/trimester for which you are eligible and are currently open for application. If the deadline has passed you will be required to apply for the next available session.

Select you would like to apply for a Flexible Double Degree from the three options and then selecting Next.
Type in the degree you wish to transfer to in the Search Bar (for example Engineering) and then select Search. Please note if you are currently enrolled in a single degree and would like to add degree component it will give you the option to keep your current degree and add another. If you are currently enrolled in a flexible double degree, it will give you the option to keep one of the degrees if you wish, and then swap the other.

A list of degrees will appear matching the search. Select the degree you wish to apply for and select next. If nothing appears try broadening your search terms. If you cannot find your desired degree, please contact your Academic College for further information.

Repeat the previous step for second degree and then select Next.
Review the information at the top of the page to ensure that the degree you are applying for is correct. If you have any further comments you would like to provide you can enter them into the Comments section. If you are intending to graduate at the end of the semester/session you are applying to transfer to, you will need to note this in the comment section.

Once you have made any relevant comments you will need to read and agree to the Student Declaration and then select Submit. Your application has now been successfully submitted.
How to Accept your Degree Transfer Offer

Once your application has been assessed, you will receive a notification via your student email. If you are successful, you will be able to accept or decline your degree transfer offer through your ISIS account.

Log into you ISIS account and select Degree Transfer Acceptance using the drop down menu. This is found by selecting Main Menu > ISIS > Academic Records > Degree Transfer Acceptance

An offer will be present for you to accept or decline. Select Next to continue.
