ADDING OR CHANGING AGENT REPRESENTATIVE (ADMISSIONS)

THIS FORM IS NOT AN APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

Who should use this form?

- If you are engaging the services of an agent after you have already applied, you should use this form.
If you are changing from one ANU agent to another during the application process, you should use this form.
ANU records will reflect the most recent request for representation. Do not submit multiple forms.

Who should not use this form?

- If you have notified us on your application that you are using an agent, you should not use this form.
If you are a current ANU student. You should not engage the services of an ANU agent; apply directly to the University for any new ANU program.

Please read these notes before completing the form.

- You must lodge the completed form: by email to international.admissions@anu.edu.au
2. By engaging the services of an agent you agree to forward enquiries and communication through that agent. Your agent will contact the University on your behalf. If you have enquiries about your application, you should contact your agent.
3. The outcome of your application will be sent to your agent as nominated by you. They will forward any communication from the University to you.
4. If you change your nominated agent, the University will update your application record. If you decide to return to your previous agent, or change agent representative again, you must complete a new Adding or Changing Agent Representative form. All communication will be sent to the agent most recently nominated by you. We would advise you to select your agent carefully as this will ensure communications are sent to the correct agency.
5. If you choose to change agencies, it is helpful to us to tell us why. There is a small field on the front of this form to provide information on why you are changing agents. If the space provided is not enough, please attach a document outlining your reasons.
