

BRITISHNESS and OTHERNESS:

Locating Marginal White Identities in the Empire

---

PROGRAM

Seminar Room, Humanities Research Centre, Old Canberra House, ANU

Monday 5 July 2004

9:00 Coffee and Registration

9:30 Welcome and Introduction: Paul Pickering

9:40 Robyn Westcott

The uses of (an)other History: A digression from Linda Colley's 'Britishness and Otherness: An Argument' (1992)

Chris Saunders

Black British and White British in South Africa

Ben Wellings

Crown and Country: Britishness and Australian Nationalism since 1788

11:10 Morning tea

11:30 Tina Parolin

Contagion and Containment: Political Prisoners and the 'Other' in early Nineteenth Century England

Donal Lowry

The Irish Diaspora

Malcolm Campbell

'Marginal micks' or mainstream men and women? Irishness and Britishness in nineteenth and early-twentieth century New Zealand

1:00 Lunch

2:00 Lancia Roselya

Grace Aguilar: A Sephardic Woman's Perspective on the Prospect of Embracing the Christian 'Other' in the Nineteenth Century

Sarah Carter

Cultivating Distinctions: The Category of "White Woman" in the Canadian Prairie West, 1896 - 1920

3.00 Afternoon tea

3:15 Emma Greenwood

Being & Becoming a British Migrant: Postwar British immigration to South Africa & Australia, 1945-1960

Alex Tyrrell

Scottishness and Britishness: From Scotland to Australia Felix

4:15 Close

Tuesday 6 July 2004

9:15 Commentators:
Iain McCalman
John Docker
Jennifer Ridden
Paul Pickering

10:15 Morning tea

10:30 Roundtable discussion

12:00 Close.

Supported by the Humanities Research Centre and the National Institute for Social Sciences and Law.