

Diplomatic Student's Tuition Fee Concession

Who is eligible to apply for the concession?

Application for a tuition fee concession is available to:

- Accredited members of the International Diplomatic Corps in Australia holding 995 visas and resident in Canberra and immediate local areas
- Their legal or de facto partners/spouses and/or
- Their children (including step, adopted or foster children)

Which programs can the concession be applied to?

The tuition fee concession is only available for undergraduate award programs within the University.

Which fees will be concession be applied to?

The concession applies to tuition fees only and does not include other fees appropriate to and advertised for the program in which the student seeks to enrol.

What conditions must be met in order to be eligible for the concession?

Students seeking tuition fees concession must:

- Meet the admission requirements for international students including academic and language requirements.
- Meet any other requirements for international students required by the university.
- Demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Registrar, Division of Registrar and Student Services, that they, or their parent or spouse, hold a 995 visa for temporary residence in Australia and that they are resident in Canberra or the immediate local area.
- Not hold any ANU scholarship that meets the cost of tuition fees in whole or part.
- Provide evidence of lack of significant financial support for educational purposes from or through their Embassy.

When does the application for concession need to be submitted by?

Applicants are requested to submit original documentary evidence to the Registrar, Division of Registrar and Student Services, that they meet the criteria outlined in points (1) and (5) of the "Diplomats' Tuition Fees Concession" Policy, prior to the first day of the semester in which concession fees are sought.

When will I be notified of the outcome of my application for the Diplomatic Concession?

The Registrar, Division of Registrar and Student Services will notify the student of the outcome of their application by the date when the International Student Fee is due for that Semester. The Registrar's decision is final.

How much will the tuition fees cost?

The Tuition Fee will be based on the indicative minimum set by DEEWR (Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations) for the particular discipline area of each course in which the student seeks to enrol and rounded up to the nearest ANU Price Point set by the ANU. Tuition fees will be indexed annually for all students in line with movements in the DEEWR Indicative Minima and corresponding ANU Price Points.

How long will I receive the concession for?

If awarded the fees concession, the student will continue to receive the concession rate for the duration of their first undergraduate qualification at the University.

What happens if my situation changes?

Should a student's situation change with respect to the criteria outlined in points (1) and (5) of the "Diplomats' Tuition Fees Concession" Policy at any time during their studies, they must advise the Registrar, Division of Registrar and Student Services, in writing, immediately. It is at the discretion of the Registrar, whether to continue the concession.
