Change of Name, Title or Contact Details

Please read these Notes before completing the form.

NOTE: Students have access to update all address, phone and email contact details themselves via ISIS. This form may only be used to update names, titles and dates of birth.

<http://isis.anu.edu.au>

PHONE NUMBERS: All students should have either an active mobile phone number or an ACT home phone number listed on ISIS. If Student Administration Services staff are unable to contact a student via phone then an email will be sent to the students ANU email account.

ANU EMAIL: Students must check their student email account regularly. Official and important University information is sent to student email accounts only.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS: If you are an international student, it is your responsibility to notify the Department of Immigration and Multicultural Affairs (DIMA) two working days in advance of your change of address. Failure to do so may have serious consequences.

International students must also supply a Home and Mailing address. The Home address is your address where you are living in Canberra, not a PO Box. Your Mailing address is your international address in your home country.
