Program Withdrawal Guidelines

Program Withdrawal should be sought prior to the commencement of the academic year or session in which it is to take effect. Students who enrol and withdraw from all courses before the relevant Census Date/s will not be liable for the tuition fees/Student Contribution for those courses.

If the relevant Census Date/s have passed you will remain liable for the tuition fees/student contribution.

You should receive notification of withdrawal from the ANU College that offers your degree/program within 28 days of submitting the application.

Census Dates are:

First Semester courses:	31 March
Second Semester courses:	31 August
Summer/Autumn/Winter/Spring Session courses:	Check the website - www.anu.edu.au/studyat

Readmission to your program

If you wish to resume your degree/program you are required to reapply to the University as per normal admission procedures for the relevant program.

Refund of Fees Paid

Please see the website <http://fees.anu.edu.au> for details and forms.

International Students

International students should note that there may be visa implications if you withdraw from your program. You should contact the Office of Policy and Regulation (OPAR) at Policy.Regs@anu.edu.au before withdrawing.

For further details on withdrawing from your program, refer to the Student Enrolment and Administrative Procedures (SEAP) Guide. Reference copies of the SEAP Quick Reference Guide are available at Student Administration Services, all College/Faculty/School/Centre offices. The full version of the Guide is available on the website <http://www.anu.edu.au/sas/seap>.
