Alphabetical list of undergraduate courses currently offered by The Faculties and the National Institute of the Arts.

The following is an alphabetical list of all undergraduate courses taught in the Faculties of Arts, Asian Studies, Economics and Commerce, Engineering and Information Technology, Law, and Science and also the National Institute of the Arts. Information is presented as follows:

Column 1 The name of the course is its official title. This title should always be used when applying to re-enrol, lodging variation forms and so on.

Column 2 The alphanumeric code is for administrative purposes but contains useful information. For example:

Column 3 This indicates the discipline to which the course relates, or the faculty, department, centre or school offering the course

Column 4 Value is a measure of the load of a course, expressed in units. A normal full-time load for a year is 48 units. The majority of semester courses are 6 units, although some only carry half that load, at 3 units.

Column 5

- S1 courses taught in first semester
- S2 courses taught in second semester
- X1 courses taught in the summer session
- X2 courses taught in the winter session
- _ the course will not be offered in 2002
