Bachelor of Actuarial Studies/Bachelor of Laws

(Academic Program: 4443 | Academic Plan: 4443XBACTS)

Duration: 5 years full-time

Minimum: 240 units

CRICOS Code: 035608A

The normal time for completion of a combined program is five years for full-time pass students. The length of the combined program makes part-time study inadvisable and the faculties will examine such applications carefully.

Program requirements

Minimum requirement from each program:

ACTUARIAL STUDIES

At least 96 units offered by the ANU College of Business and Economics, as defined in that College's Schedule 1, subject to any restrictions detailed in the ANU College of Business and Economics entry.

LAW

At least 144 units of Law courses, offered by the ANU College of Law including 90 units of compulsory courses, as listed in the section relating to the Bachelor of Laws, and 54 units of elective courses.

Course restrictions apply to Introduction to Commercial Law, Law of Business Entities and Principles of Taxation Law in satisfying the requirements of this program.

Admission

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Actuarial Studies requires a total of 144 units, comprising the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Actuarial Studies as defined in the ANU College of Business and Economics entry.

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Laws requires a total of 192 units including at least 144 units from the ANU College of Law including compulsory and elective courses as defined above. No more than 18 units at first-year level of non-law courses can be counted if admission to the LLB occurs before the combined program requirements have been met.

Note:

- In the standard five-year pass degree, it is not possible to gain full exemptions from IAAust Part I requirements; however, by overloading (ie, taking more than the standard four courses in some semesters) or by using the ANU College of Business and Economics Summer School Program (if available), students may be able to complete their exemptions from Part I. It may be possible to complete some of the Part I exemptions as part of an Honours year in Actuarial Studies (contact Convenor of Actuarial Studies).

Bachelor of Actuarial Studies/Bachelor of Science

(Academic Program: 4460 | Academic Plan: 4460XBACTS)

Duration: 4 years full-time

Minimum: 192 units

CRICOS Code: 055164C

The combined Bachelor of Actuarial Studies/Bachelor of Science degree program offers a highly involved program. Actuarial studies is a highly mathematical, quantitative discipline and students in this area are often interested in adding the skills that a Science degree provides. The combined degree program is designed for students who have strong mathematics and science backgrounds.

Program requirements

The combined degree consists of at least 192 units including 96 units taught in the ANU College of Business and Economics and 96 units from the ANU College of Medicine, Biology and Environment and the ANU College of Physical and Mathematical Sciences, or as approved by each one of the relevant Colleges.

Minimum requirement from each program:

ACTUARIAL STUDIES

At least 96 units of compulsory courses specified for the degree of Bachelor of Actuarial Studies, as detailed in the entry relating to the ANU College of Business and Economics.

SCIENCE

At least 96 units of Group A, B, and C courses including:

- no more than 36 units of Group A courses
- no fewer than 36 units of Group C courses
- the completion of at least one Science major.

Admission

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Actuarial Studies requires a total of 144 points, comprising the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Actuarial Studies as defined in the ANU College of Business and Economics entry.

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Science requires a total of 144 units including:

- not less than 96 units of Science courses as defined above
- further courses to the value of not less than 48 units taught in or approved by, either of the relevant Colleges.

No more than 48 first-year units may be counted if admission to the BSc occurs before the combined program requirements have been completed.

Bachelor of Actuarial Studies/Bachelor of Statistics

(Academic Program: 4417 | Academic Plan: 4417XBACTS)

Duration: 4 years full-time

Minimum: 192 units

CRICOS Code: 063251D

Program requirements

Minimum requirement from each program:

The requirements of the degree of Bachelor of Actuarial Studies as detailed in the entry relating to the ANU College of Business and Economics.

The requirements of the degree of Bachelor of Statistics as detailed in the entry relating to the ANU College of Business and Economics.

Bachelor of Arts (Visual)/Bachelor of Science (Forestry)

(Academic Program: 4018 | Academic Plan: 4018XBAVIS)

Duration: 5 years full-time

Minimum: 240 units

CRICOS Code: 036666E

Please note that this combined program has been replaced by the Bachelor of Visual Arts/Bachelor of Science (Forestry) combined program.

Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Arts (Visual)

(Academic Program: 4101 | Academic Plan: 4101XBARTS)

Duration: 4 years full-time

Minimum: 192 units

CRICOS Code: 0277905

Please note that this combined program has been replaced by the Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Visual Arts combined program.

Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Asian Studies

(Academic Program: 4591 | Academic Plan: 4591XBARTS)

Duration: 4 years full-time

Minimum: 192 units

CRICOS Code: 021433A

THIS PROGRAM WILL NO LONGER BE OFFERED TO NEW STUDENTS FROM JANUARY 2009

Program requirements

The combined course leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Asian Studies requires the completion of at least 192 units with at least 96 units from each of the two Colleges.

Minimum requirement from each program:

ARTS

At least 96 units from the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences, including:

- a minimum of one Arts major comprising no fewer than 42 units (as defined in the entry for the Bachelor of Arts)
- a maximum of 24 units from Bachelor of Arts courses offered at first year level (1000 series courses)
- a minimum of 72 units from Bachelor of Arts courses offered at later year level (2000/3000 series courses).

ASIAN STUDIES

Asian Studies courses to the value of at least 96 units taught in or approved by the ANU College of Asia and the Pacific including:

- Asian-language courses forming an Asian language major, as defined in the College entry for the Bachelor of Asian Studies, to the value of between 48-60 units
- non-language courses forming an approved cognitive major as defined in the College entry for the Bachelor of Asian Studies, to the value of between 36-48 units.

Thus, the course combination for a language major/cognitive major could be: 8/8; 10/6; or 9/7.

Admission

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Arts requires at least 144 units, comprising the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts (as detailed in the entry for the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences). No more than 48 first-year units may be counted if admission to the BA occurs before the combined program requirements have been completed.

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Asian Studies requires a total of 144 units including:

- not less than 96 units of Asian Studies courses as defined above
- courses to the value of not less than 48 units taught in or approved by, either of the relevant Colleges.

In the combined program an Arts course means a course prescribed for the pass degree of Bachelor of Arts; an Asian Studies course means a course prescribed for the pass degree of the Bachelor of Asian Studies. These courses are listed in the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences and the ANU College of Asia and the Pacific entries in this Handbook.

[1] Students taking Chinese or Japanese may follow a different pattern initially.

Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Asian Studies (Specialist)

(Academic Program: 4551 | Academic Plan: 4551XBAS)

Duration: 5 years full-time

Minimum: 240 units

CRICOS Code: 021434M

THIS PROGRAM WILL NO LONGER BE OFFERED TO NEW STUDENTS FROM JANUARY 2009

Program requirements

The combined program leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Asian Studies (Specialist) and Bachelor of Arts requires the completion of at least 240 units comprised of the following:

ASIAN STUDIES

Asian Studies courses to the value of at least 96 units taught in or approved by the ANU College of Asia and the Pacific including:

- Asian-language courses forming an Asian language major, as defined in the College entry for the Bachelor of Asian Studies, to the value of between 48-60 units
- non-language courses forming an approved cognitive major as defined in the College entry for the Bachelor of Asian Studies, to the value of between 36-48 units

- 48 units comprising the Year-in-Asia

ARTS

At least 96 Bachelor of Arts units, including:

- a minimum of one Arts major comprising no fewer than 42 units (as defined in the entry for the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences)
- a maximum of 24 units from Bachelor of Arts courses offered at first year (1000 series) level

- a minimum of 72 units from Bachelor of Arts courses offered at later year (2000/3000 series) level.

Admission

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Arts requires at least 144 units, comprising the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts (as detailed in the entry for the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences). No more than 48 first-year units may be counted if admission to the BA occurs before the combined program requirements have been completed.

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Asian Studies (Specialist) requires a total of 192 units including:

- not less than 144 units of Asian Studies courses as defined above
- courses to the value of not less than 48 units taught in or approved by, either of the relevant Colleges.

In the combined program an Arts course means a course prescribed for the pass degree of Bachelor of Arts; an Asian Studies course means a course prescribed for the pass degree of the Bachelor of Asian Studies. These courses are listed in the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences and the ANU College of Asia and the Pacific entries in this Handbook.

Year-in-Asia disclaimer

Applicants are advised that due to circumstances beyond the University's control (for example: specific international security concerns, international health crises) it may not be possible for students to commence or complete their Year-in-Asia requirement either within the minimum time for completion of their degree, or, the maximum time for completion of their degree. Should these circumstances occur, the College will offer compensating program/s, but not programs leading to the Year-in-Asia qualification. In these very unusual circumstances (which have not occurred in the 12 year life of the program) reversion to the standard Bachelor of Asian Studies may be necessary.

Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Laws

(Academic Program: 4103 | Academic Plan: 4103XBARTS)

Duration: 5 years full-time

Minimum: 240 units

CRICOS Code: 002296G

The normal time for completion of a combined program is five years for full-time pass students. The length of the combined program makes part-time study inadvisable and the two faculties will examine such applications carefully. The program is structured so that a full-time student will normally complete the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts after four years' study and the degree of Bachelor of Laws one year later. Students intending to apply to transfer from the Bachelor of Arts to the combined program in Arts and Law after completion of first year are advised to consult program advisers in both faculties.

Program requirements

Minimum requirement from each College:

ARTS

At least 96 units from the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences, including:

- a minimum of one Arts major comprising no fewer than 42 units (as defined in the entry for the Bachelor of Arts)

- a maximum of 24 units from Arts first year courses (1000 series courses)
- a minimum of 72 units from Arts later year courses (2000/3000 series courses).

LAW

At least 144 units of Law courses, offered by the ANU College of Law including 90 units of compulsory courses, as listed in the section relating to the Bachelor of Laws, and 54 units of elective courses.

Admission

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Arts requires at least 144 units, comprising the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts (as detailed in the entry for the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences).

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Laws requires a total of 192 units including at least 144 units from the ANU College of Law including compulsory and elective courses as defined above. No more than 18 units at first-year level of non-law courses can be counted if admission to the LLB occurs before the combined program requirements have been met.

Degree structure

Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Music

(Academic Program: 4111 | Academic Plan: 4111XBARTS)

Duration: 4 years full-time

Minimum: 192 units

CRICOS Code: 048039M

Program requirements

The combined program consists of at least 192 units comprising:

ARTS

At least 96 units from the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences, including:

- a minimum of one Arts major comprising no fewer than 42 units
- a maximum of 24 units from Bachelor of Arts courses offered at 1000 level
- a minimum of 72 units from Bachelor of Arts courses offered at 2000/3000 level.

Note: Students cannot undertake any MUSM courses or the Musicology major as part of the Arts component of this combined degree.

MUSIC

At least 96 units, comprising the compulsory core units of one of the following major patterns:

- Major in Performance (all classical instruments except Voice)
- Major in Performance (Voice)
- Major in Jazz
- Major in Composition
- Major in Musicology

Specific courses required to be taken to fulfill these unit requirements depend on the student's major within the BMus. See the BMus course requirements for details.

Admission

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Arts requires a total of 144 units, comprising the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts as defined in the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences entry. No more than 48 first-year units may be counted if admission to the BA occurs before the combined program requirements have been completed.

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Music requires a total of 144 units, comprising 96 units of music as defined above, plus 48 units of Bachelor of Arts or other Music courses.

Degree structure

The following example gives a BA in which the student takes two Arts majors (neither of which could be music). More likely, the student will only take one major, in which case the units designated "Arts Major B" can be replaced by any arts courses.

Psychology can be studied at ANU in a specialised Bachelor of Science (Psychology) program as a single degree or as part of a combined degree. Students take at least 78 units of psychology. A pass degree in psychology provides an excellent grounding in the field. An honours degree or fourth-year diploma provides additional training in research and substantive psychological skills. This is essential for admission to associate membership in the Australian Psychological Society, for registration as a psychologist in the ACT, and for enrolment in most graduate degree programs.

Qualification for the independent practice of psychology, or employment in academic and medical institutions, typically requires graduate study leading to a degree of Master of Philosophy, Master of Clinical Psychology, Professional Doctorate in Clinical Psychology (DPSych (Clinical)), Doctor of Philosophy, or Doctor of Philosophy (Clinical Psychology).

Program requirements

The combined program consists of at least 192 units including a minimum of 96 units taught in or approved by each one of the relevant Colleges.

Minimum requirement from each program:

ARTS

At least 96 units from the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences, including:

- minimum of one Arts major comprising no fewer than 42 units (as defined in the entry for the Bachelor of Arts)

- a maximum of 24 units from Bachelor of Arts first year courses (1000 series courses)
- a minimum of 72 units from Bachelor of Arts later year courses (2000/3000 series courses).

SCIENCE (PSYCHOLOGY)

At least 96 units of Group A, B, and C courses including:

- at least 24 units of Group A courses including PSYC1003 and PSYC1004
- all of PSYC2001, PSYC2002, PSYC2007, PSYC2008 and PSYC2009
- at least 36 units of Group C Psychology courses including PSYC3018
- either PSYC2004 (Group B) or PSYC3026 (Group C) must be included in the above.

Admission

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Arts requires at least 144 units, comprising the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts (as detailed in the entry for the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences). No more than 48 first-year units may be counted if admission to the BA occurs before the combined program requirements have been completed.

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Science (Psychology) requires a total of 144 units including:

- not less than 96 units of Science courses as defined above
- further courses to the value of not less than 48 taken towards the Bachelor of Arts.

No more than 48 first-year units may be counted if admission to the Bachelor of Science (Psychology) occurs before the combined program requirements have been completed.

THIS PROGRAM WILL NO LONGER BE AVAILABLE TO NEW STUDENTS FROM JANUARY 2009

The combined course leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Asian Studies (Specialist) and Bachelor of Commerce requires the completion of at least 192 units with at least 96 units from each of the two Colleges.

Program requirements

The Asian Studies (Specialist) degrees listed in the ANU College of Asia and the Pacific entry may be combined with the Bachelor of Commerce, by completing the combination of courses from both colleges, referred to in 'Study Options', with the addition of the Year-in-Asia program, generally taken in Year 4 of the combined degree. The total number of units involved is 240. Admission to the Asian Studies(Specialist) degree requires 192 units, and the normal duration of the program is 5 years. Students should discuss their program with both relevant ANU College offices.

See also Bachelor of Asian Studies/Bachelor of Commerce.

COMMERCE

At least 96 units from Schedule 1 of the ANU College of Business and Economics, as detailed in the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Commerce in the ANU College of Business and Economics entry.

Year-in-Asia disclaimer

Applicants are advised that due to circumstances beyond the University's control (for example: specific international security concerns, international health crises) it may not be possible for students to commence or complete their Year-in-Asia requirement either within the minimum time for completion of their degree, or, the maximum time for completion of their degree. Should these circumstances occur, the College will offer compensating program/s, but not programs leading to the Year-in-Asia qualification. In these very unusual circumstances (which have not occurred in the 12 year life of the program) reversion to the standard Bachelor of Asian Studies may be necessary.

Bachelor of Asian Studies (Specialist)/Bachelor of Laws

(Academic Program: 4553 | Academic Plan: 4553XBAS)

Duration: 6 years full-time

Minimum: 288 units

CRICOS Code: 020082E

THIS PROGRAM WILL NO LONGER BE AVAILABLE TO NEW STUDENTS FROM JANUARY 2009

Only students confident in their ability to cope with these two demanding programs should consider enrolling for the combined program leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Asian Studies and Bachelor of Laws as the workload is heavy. Any student proposing to undertake the combined program may wish to consult the program advisers in both faculties.

The normal time for completion of this combined program is six years for full-time students. The length of the combined program makes part-time study inadvisable and the faculties will examine such applications carefully.

Program requirements

Students in this combined degree are required to meet the minimum coursework requirements for the standard combined degrees.

The Asian Studies (Specialist) degrees listed in the ANU College of Asia and the Pacific entry may be combined with the Bachelor of Laws by completing the combination of courses from both Colleges referred to in 'Study Options', with the addition of the Year-in-Asia program, generally taken in Year 5 of the combined program. The total number of units is 288. Admission to the Asian Studies (Specialist) degree requires 192 units, and the normal time for the combined program is six years. Students should discuss their program with both relevant College advisers.

LAW

At least 144 units of Law courses, offered by the ANU College of Law including 90 units of compulsory courses, as listed in the section relating to the Bachelor of Laws, and 54 units of elective courses.

Admission

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Laws requires a total of 192 units including at least 144 units from the ANU College of Law including compulsory and elective courses as defined above. No more than 18 units at first-year level of non-law courses can be counted if admission to the LLB occurs before the combined program requirements have been met.

Year-in-Asia disclaimer

Applicants are advised that due to circumstances beyond the University's control (for example: specific international security concerns, international health crises) it may not be possible for students to commence or complete their Year-in-Asia requirement either within the minimum time for completion of their degree, or, the maximum time for completion of their degree. Note:

1. Bachelor of Asian Studies

- Students taking Chinese or Japanese as their Asian language major may follow somewhat different patterns.

2. The Bachelor of Economics elective courses must include:

- at least 18 units from the economics course list (Schedule 2)
- at least 6 units in Economic History (ECHI).

ASIAN STUDIES

Asian Studies courses to the value of at least 96 units taught in or approved by the ANU College of Asia and the Pacific, including:

- Asian-language courses forming an Asian language major, as defined in the College entry for the Bachelor of Asian Studies, to the value of between 48 and 60 units
- non-language courses forming an approved cognitive major as defined in the College entry for the Bachelor of Asian Studies, to the value of between 36 and 48 units.

Thus, the course combination for a language major and the cognitive major could be: 8/8; 9/7 or 10/6.

Admission

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Asian Studies requires a total of 144 units including not less than 96 units of Asian Studies courses as defined above.

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Economics requires a total of 144 units, comprising the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Economics as defined in the ANU College of Business and Economics entry.

Bachelor of Commerce/Bachelor of Science (Psychology)

(Academic Program: 4419 | Academic Plan: 4419XBCOMM)

Duration: 4 years full-time

Minimum: 192 units

CRICOS Code: 047425J

Psychology can be studied at ANU in a specialised Bachelor of Science (Psychology) program or as part of a combined degree. Students take at least 78 units of psychology.

A pass degree in psychology provides an excellent grounding in the field. An honours degree or fourth-year diploma provides additional training in research and substantive psychological skills. This is essential for admission to associate membership in the Australian Psychological Society, for registration as a psychologist in the ACT, and for enrolment in most graduate degree programs.

Qualification for the independent practice of psychology, or employment in academic and medical institutions, typically requires graduate study leading to a degree of Master of Philosophy, Master of Clinical Psychology, Professional Doctorate in Clinical Psychology (DPsych (Clinical)), Doctor of Philosophy, or Doctor of Philosophy (Clinical Psychology).

Program requirements

The combined program consists of:

- At least 192 units including a minimum of 96 units taught in or approved by each one of the relevant Colleges.
- Normal duration of full-time program: 4 years.

Minimum requirement from each program:

COMMERCE

At least 96 units from Schedule 1 of the College of Business and Economics, as detailed in the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Commerce in the ANU College of Business and Economics entry.

SCIENCE

At least 96 units of Group A, B, and C courses including:

- at least 24 units of Group A courses including PSYC1003 and PSYC1004
- all of PSYC2001, PSYC2002, PSYC2007, PSYC2008 and PSYC2009
- at least 36 units of Group C Psychology courses including PSYC3018
- either PSYC2004 (Group B) or PSYC3026 (Group C) must be included in the above.

Admission

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Commerce requires a total of 144 units, comprising the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Commerce in the ANU College of Business and Economics entry.

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Science (Psychology) requires a total of 192 units including:

- not less than 96 units of Science courses as defined above
- further courses to the value of not less than 48 units taught in or approved by, either of the relevant Colleges.

No more than 48 first-year units may be counted if admission to the Bachelor of Science (Psychology) occurs before the combined program requirements have been completed.

- at least 6 units in Economic History (ECHI).

Bachelor of Economics/Bachelor of Statistics

(Academic Program: 4427 | Academic Plan: 4427XBECON)

Duration: 4 years full-time

Minimum: 192 units

CRICOS Code: 063255M

Program requirements

Minimum requirement from each program:

The requirements of the degree of Bachelor of Economics as detailed in the entry relating to the ANU College of Business and Economics.

The requirements of the degree of Bachelor of Statistics as detailed in the entry relating to the ANU College of Business and Economics.

Admission

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Economics requires a total of 144 units comprising the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Economics as defined in the entry relating to the ANU College of Business and Economics.

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Statistics requires a total of 144 units comprising the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Statistics as defined in the entry relating to the ANU College of Business and Economics.

Bachelor of Engineering/Bachelor of Arts

(Academic Program: 4701 | Academic Plan: 4701XBENG)

Duration: 5 years full-time

Minimum: 240 units

CRICOS Code: 036669B

Program requirements

ENGINEERING

The requirements of the program as listed in the entry for the ANU College of Engineering and Computer Science or <http://cecs.anu.edu.au/students/future/undergrad/BEng>

ARTS

At least 96 units from the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences, including:

- a total of no more than 24 units from Arts courses offered at 1000 level

- a total of no fewer than 72 units from Arts courses offered at 2000/3000 (later year) level
- a minimum of one Arts major, comprising no fewer than 42 units (as defined in the entry for the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences)
- inclusion of one course (6u) from List A and 1 course (6u) from List B below.

Admission

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Engineering requires at least 192 units which satisfy the Bachelor of Engineering Program.

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Arts requires at least 144 units comprising the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts (as detailed in the entry for the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences).

Bachelor of Engineering/Bachelor of Economics

(Academic Program: 4702 | Academic Plan: 4702XBENG)

Duration: 5 years full-time

Minimum: 240 units

CRICOS Code: 008847K

Program requirements

The normal duration of the full-time program is equivalent to five years. The combined program consists of at least 240 units incorporating:

- at least 96 units from Schedule 1 of the ANU College of Business and Economics, as detailed in the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Economics in the ANU College of Business and Economics entry

- the requirements of the Bachelor of Engineering program as listed in the entry for the ANU College of Engineering and Computer Science or <http://cecs.anu.edu.au/students/future/undergrad/BEng>

Admission

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Economics requires a total of 144 units, comprising the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Economics as detailed in the ANU College of Business and Economics entry.

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Engineering requires at least 192 units which satisfy the requirements for the Bachelor of Engineering program.

(Academic Program: 4707 | Academic Plan: 4707XBENG)

Duration: 5 years full-time

Minimum: 240 units

CRICOS Code: 012048G

Program requirements

ENGINEERING

The requirements of the Bachelor of Engineering program as listed in the ANU College of Engineering and Computer Science entry or <http://cecs.anu.edu.au/students/future/undergrad/BEng>

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

At least 96 units of courses which satisfy (a) of the requirements of the Bachelor of Information Technology program, as set out in the entry for the ANU College of Engineering and Computer Science or <http://cecs.anu.edu.au/students/future/undergrad/BIT>

Admission

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Engineering requires at least 192 units which satisfy the requirements of the Bachelor of Engineering program as defined above.

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Information Technology requires at least 144 units including:

- at least 96 units of courses which satisfy (a) of the requirements of the Bachelor of Information Technology program
- at least 48 units of courses taught in or approved by either of the relevant Colleges.

Note:

IT courses are: COMP courses, INFS & NEWM courses specified in the majors, ENGN1211 Discovering Engineering, ENGN2225 System Design, ENGN3213 Digital Systems and Microprocessors, ENGN3226 Digital Communications, ENGN4528 Computer Vision, MATH3511 Scientific Computing.

[1] Combined BE/BIT students must study COMP1110 to meet requirements of a technical major in IT.

Bachelor of Information Technology must include:

- all the courses from the core and a major from Schedule 1 or
- all the courses from the core and a major from Schedule 2

Bachelor of Engineering/Bachelor of Science

(Academic Program: 4706 | Academic Plan: 4706XBENG)

Duration: 5 years full-time

Minimum: 240 units

CRICOS Code: 008848J

The combined program BE/BSc combines the engineering program with further specialisation in mathematics, physics, chemistry, computer science, biochemistry, psychology, resource management and environmental science, or any other science discipline at ANU. The combined program results in the award of the Bachelor of Engineering (BE) degree and the Bachelor of Science (BSc) degree.

Program requirements

SCIENCE

Science courses to the value of at least 96 units taught in or approved by the Colleges of Science including:

- no more than 36 units of Group A courses
- the completion of a science major
- 48 units of later year courses, including no fewer than 36 units of Group C courses.

Notes

1. Students who wish to major in Mathematics or Computer Science are recommended to take the standard first year program pattern of the BE program.
2. Students who wish to major in Physics will need to take PHYS1101 in Semester 1 and PHYS1201 in Semester 2.
3. Students who wish to major in Chemistry take CHEM1014 in Semester 1 and take CHEM1015 in Semester 2. (Such students will need to meet the chemistry prerequisite).
4. Students who wish to major in Biochemistry take CHEM1014 in Semester 1 and take BIOL1004 in Semester 2. (Such students will need an ACT minor in Chemistry.) Students must consult the Head of the School of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology before enrolling in BIOL1004.
5. Students pursuing majors in other science disciplines (for example, Psychology, Resource Management and Environmental Science) take Group A courses in their chosen discipline to the value of 12 units (eg PSYC1001, ENVS1001/ENVS1008) in their first year.
6. Students majoring in Computer Science should take COMP2300.

ENGINEERING

The requirements of the Bachelor of Engineering program as listed in the entry for the ANU College of Engineering and Computer Science or <http://cecs.anu.edu.au/students/future/undergrad/BEng>

Admission

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Science requires a total of 144 units including:

- not less than 96 units of Science courses as defined above
- further courses to the value of not less than 48 units taught in, or approved by, either of the relevant Colleges.

No more than 48 units of first year courses may be counted if admission to the BSc occurs before the combined program requirements have been completed.

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Engineering requires at least 192 units which satisfy the requirements for the Bachelor of Engineering program.

Bachelor of Finance/Bachelor of Laws

(Academic Program: 4423 | Academic Plan: 4423XBFIN)

Duration: 5 years full-time

Minimum: 240 units

CRICOS Code: 043228B

The normal time for completion of a combined program is five years for full-time pass students. The length of the combined program makes part-time study inadvisable and the faculties will examine such applications carefully.

Program requirements

Minimum requirement from each program:

FINANCE

At least 96 units offered by the ANU College of Business and Economics, as defined in that College's Schedule 1, subject to any restrictions detailed in the ANU College of Business and Economics entry.

LAW

At least 144 units of Law courses, offered by the ANU College of Law including 90 units of compulsory courses, as listed in the section relating to the Bachelor of Laws, and 54 units of elective courses.

Admission

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Finance requires a total of 144 units, comprising the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Finance as defined in the ANU College of Business and Economics entry.

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Laws requires a total of 192 units including at least 144 units from the ANU College of Law including compulsory and elective courses as defined above. No more than 18 units at first-year level of non-law courses can be counted if admission to the LLB occurs before the combined program requirements have been met.

Bachelor of Finance/Bachelor of Science

(Academic Program: 4426 | Academic Plan: 4426XBFIN)

Duration: 4 years full-time

Minimum: 192 units

CRICOS Code: 043748M

Program requirements

The combined degree consists of at least 192 units including 96 units taught in the ANU College of Business and Economics and, the Colleges of Science and its related departments (ie Department or School in the Colleges of Science or the Department of Computer Science or the School of Finance and Applied Statistics), or as approved by each one of the relevant Colleges.

Minimum requirement from each program:

FINANCE

At least 96 units of compulsory courses specified for the degree of Bachelor of Finance as detailed in the entry relating to the ANU College of Business and Economics.

SCIENCE

At least 96 units of Group A, B, and C courses including:

- no more than 36 units of Group A courses
- no fewer than 36 units of Group C courses
- the completion of at least one Science major.

Admission

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Finance requires a total of 144 points, comprising the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Finance, as defined in the ANU College of Business and Economics entry.

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Science requires a total of 144 units including:

- not less than 96 units of Science courses as defined above
- further courses to the value of not less than 48 units taught in or approved by, either of the relevant Colleges.

No more than 48 first-year units may be counted if admission to the BSc occurs before the combined program requirements have been completed.

Bachelor of Information Technology/Bachelor of Laws

(Academic Program: 4703 | Academic Plan: 4703XBINF)

Duration: 5 years full-time

Minimum: 240 units

CRICOS Code: 043229A

The normal time for completion of a combined program with law is five years for full-time pass students. The length of the combined program makes part-time study inadvisable and the two faculties will examine such applications carefully. The program is structured so that a full-time student will normally complete the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Information Technology after four years study and the degree of Bachelor of Laws one year later.

Program requirements

Minimum requirement for each program:

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

At least 96 units of courses which satisfy (a) of the requirements of the Bachelor of Information Technology program.

Degree structure

LAW

At least 144 units of Law courses, offered by the ANU College of Law including 90 units of compulsory courses, as listed in the section relating to the Bachelor of Laws, and 54 units of elective courses.

Admission

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Information Technology at least 144 units, including:

- at least 96 units of courses which satisfy (a) of the requirements of the Bachelor of Information Technology program
- at least 48 units of approved courses from either of the relevant Colleges.

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Laws requires a total of 192 units including at least 144 units from the ANU College of Law including compulsory and elective courses as defined above. No more than 18 units at first-year level of non-law courses can be counted if admission to the LLB occurs before the combined program requirements have been met.

Bachelor of Information Technology/Bachelor of Science (Forestry)

(Academic Program: 4709 | Academic Plan: 4709XBINFY)

Duration: 5 years full-time

Minimum: 240 units

CRICOS Code: 036670J

Program requirements

Minimum requirement from each College:

The combined program consists of 240 units from the ANU College of Engineering and Computer Science, and the Colleges of Science or related department (ie Department or School in the Colleges of Science or the Department of Computer Science or the School of Finance and Applied Statistics).

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

At least 96 units of courses which satisfy (a) of the requirements of the Bachelor of Information Technology program, as set out in the entry for the ANU College of Engineering and Computer Science.

SCIENCE (FORESTRY)

At least 144 units comprising:

(a) 108 units consisting of

- 24 units of 1000-series courses comprising BIOL1003 or BIOL1009, ENVS1001, ENVS1003 and ENVS1004
- 36 units of 2000-series courses comprising ENVS2016, ENVS2004, ENVS2007, ENVS2009, ENVS2010 and ENVS2019

- 18 units of 3000-series courses comprising ENVS3008, ENVS3014, and ENVS3028
- 30 units of 4000-series courses comprising ENVS4002, ENVS4003, ENVS4006, ENVS4008 and ENVS4009

(b) 18 units consisting of

- either ENVS4035 (Forestry Honours 1) and ENVS4045 (Forestry Honours 2)
- or BIOL2121, ENVS2015 and 6 units of later year ENVS courses

Enrolment in Forestry Honours 1 and 2 is by invitation only

(c) 18 units of Group A, B or C courses

(d) no more than 36 units Group A may be included.

Admission

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Information Technology requires at least 144 units including:

- at least 96 units of courses which satisfy (a) of the requirements of the Bachelor of Information Technology degree
- at least 48 units of courses taught in or approved by either of the relevant Colleges.

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Science (Forestry) requires a total of 192 units, including:

- not less than 144 units of Science (Forestry) courses as defined above
- further courses to the value of not less than 48 units taught in or approved by either of the relevant Colleges.

Bachelor of Music/Bachelor of Asia-Pacific Studies

(Academic Program: 4575 | Academic Plan: 4575XBAPS)

Duration: 4 years full-time

Minimum: 192 units

CRICOS Code: 063613E

The combined course leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Asia-Pacific Studies and Bachelor of Music requires the completion of at least 192 units with at least 96 units from each of the two Colleges.

Combined degrees offer career opportunities in both fields of study.

Program requirements

The combined program consists of at least 192 units comprising:

MUSIC

At least 96 units, comprising the compulsory core units of one of the following major patterns:

- Major in Performance (all classical instruments except Voice)
- Major in Performance (Voice)
- Major in Jazz

- Major in Composition
- Major in Musicology

Specific courses required to be taken to fulfill these unit requirements depend on the student's major within the BMus. See the BMus course requirements for details.

ASIA-PACIFIC STUDIES

Courses to the value of at least 96 units taught in or approved by the ANU College of Asia and the Pacific including:

- language courses forming a Regional language major, as defined in the College entry for the Bachelor of Asia-Pacific Studies, to the value of between 48 units and 60 units
- courses forming an approved Contextual major as defined in the College entry for the Bachelor of Asia-Pacific Studies, to the value of between 36 units and 48 units
- the combined degree maybe augmented by one year study abroad in the Graduate Diploma in Asia-Pacific Studies Program.

Admission

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Asia-Pacific Studies requires a total of 144 units including not less than 96 units of Asia-Pacific Studies courses as defined above.

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Music requires: a total of 144 units, comprising 96 units of Music as defined above plus an additional 48 units of either Music or Asian Studies courses.

Degree structure

(Academic Program: 4003 | Academic Plan: 4003XBMUS)

Duration: 5 years full-time

Minimum: 240 units

CRICOS Code: 048042E

The normal time for completion of a combined program with law is five years for full-time students. The length of the combined program makes part-time study inadvisable and such applications will be examined carefully.

Combined degrees offer career opportunities in both fields of study.

Program requirements

The combined program consists of at least 240 units comprising:

MUSIC

At least 96 units, comprising the compulsory core units of one of the following major patterns:

- Major in Performance (all classical instruments except Voice)
- Major in Performance (Voice)

Bachelor of Music/Bachelor of Science (Psychology)

(Academic Program: 4009 | Academic Plan: 4009XBMUS)

Duration: 4 years full-time

Minimum: 192 units

CRICOS Code: 048043D

Psychology can be studied at ANU in a specialised Bachelor of Science (Psychology) program or as part of a combined program. Students take at least 78 units of psychology.

A pass degree in psychology provides an excellent grounding in the field. An honours degree or fourth-year diploma provides additional training in research and substantive psychological skills. This is essential for admission to associate membership in the Australian Psychological Society, for registration as a psychologist in the ACT, and for enrolment in most graduate degree programs.

Qualification for the independent practice of psychology, or employment in academic and medical institutions, typically requires graduate study leading to a degree of Master of Philosophy, Master of Clinical Psychology, Professional Doctorate in Clinical Psychology (DPsych (Clinical)), Doctor of Philosophy, or Doctor of Philosophy (Clinical Psychology).

Program requirements

The combined program consists of at least 192 units comprising:

SCIENCE (PSYCHOLOGY)

At least 96 units of Group A, B, and C courses including:

- at least 24 units of Group A courses including PSYC1003 and PSYC1004

- all of PSYC2001, PSYC2002, PSYC2007, PSYC2008 and PSYC2009
- at least 36 units of Group C Psychology courses including PSYC3018
- either PSYC2004 (Group B) or PSYC3026 (Group C) must be included in the above.

MUSIC

At least 96 music units, including:

- 36 units of one Music Major from list A
- 30 units from list B
- 30 units from list C.

Specific courses required to fulfil these unit requirements depend on the student's major within the Bachelor of Music. See the Bachelor of Music course requirements for details.

Admission

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Science (Psychology) requires a total of 144 units, comprising the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Science (Psychology) as defined in the Colleges of Science entry.

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Music requires a total of 144 units, comprising 96 units of Music as defined above plus an additional 48 units of either Music or Science (Psychology) courses.

Bachelor of Science (Resource & Environmental Management)/Bachelor of Laws

(Academic Program: 4633 | Academic Plan: 4633XBSCORE)

Duration: 5 years full-time

Minimum: 240 units

CRICOS Code: 043747A

The normal time for completion of a combined program is five years for full-time pass students. The length of the combined program makes part-time study inadvisable and the Colleges will examine such applications carefully.

Program requirements

The combined program consists of at least 240 units of courses offered by a science-related Department or the ANU College of Law.

Minimum requirement from each College:

SCIENCE

At least 96 units of Group A, B, and C including:

- at least 24 units of Group A courses selected from ENVS1001, ENVS1003, ENVS1004 and at least one of ENVS1008 or EMSC1006
- at least 12 units of Group B courses with EMSC or ENVS prefixes, including at least one of ENVS2007, ENVS2011 or ENVS2013 and at least one of ENVS2009, ENVS2014 or ENVS2015
- at least 36 units of Group C courses with EMSC or SRES or ENVS prefixes including: at least one of ENVS3007,

ENVS3028 or LAWS3103, and three level C courses in a major administered by the Department of Earth and Marine Sciences or the Fenner School of Environment and Society.

LAW

At least 144 units of Law courses, offered by the ANU College of Law including 90 units of compulsory courses, as listed in the section relating to the Bachelor of Laws, and 54 units of elective courses.

Admission

Admission to the degree of Bachelor of Science (Resource and Environmental Management) requires a total of 144 units including:

- at least 96 units of courses, as defined above, offered by a science-related department
- further courses to the value of at least 48 units taught in or approved by either of the relevant Colleges
- No more than 36 units of Group A courses may be included.

No more than 48 first-year units may be counted if admission to the BSc (ResandEnvMan) degree occurs before the combined program requirements have been completed.

Admission to degree of Bachelor of Laws requires a total of 192 units including at least 144 units from the ANU College of Law including compulsory and elective courses as defined above. No more than 18 units at first-year level of non-law courses can be counted if admission to the LLB occurs before the combined program requirements have been met.
