

Enrolling as a Research Student at ANU

I have been made an offer at ANU, How do I accept and enrol?

How to enrol information is provided in your offer letter but basically:

For Research and Scholarship offer

Complete and forward acceptance information included in your offer letter. NOTE: You must commence by 31 March if commencing first half of the year or 31 August if commencing 2nd half of the year

For international students - Arrange your Visa and pay the appropriate deposit

Make contact with your proposed supervisor to conform your commencement date and formalise supervisory panel

For Research offer

Complete and forward acceptance information included in your offer letter. NOTE: You must commence by 31 March if commencing first half of the year or 31 August if commencing 2nd half of the year

For international students - Arrange your Visa and pay the appropriate deposit to ANU

Make contact with your proposed supervisor to confirm your commencement date and formalise supervisory panel

Contact Research Student Office (RSO) by phone or email and make an appointment with RSO Officer to formalise your enrolment

Attend appointment with RSO Officer, make sure you bring along all documentation referred to in your enrolment pack

