Mother's Day Dining

Stylish ambience and child-friendly

IT'S not often that parents get to fully enjoy a stylish environment and sophisticated menu, knowing that their children are having a great time running around outside.

University House, with its heritage architecture, graceful gardens, quality restaurants and elegant bars has been a relatively well-kept secret.

Situated in the grounds of the Australian National University, it has recently commissioned an extensive refurbishment to the Fellows Bar and Café and is offering an amazing value buffet brunch this Mother's Day.

For just $28.50 per person (children under 10 eat for free), families can indulge in a sumptuous range of hot and cold dishes such as Eggs Benedict, pancakes and sweet petit fours, a glass of champagne for adults and a complementary box of chocolates for every mother. Best of all, children can fully avail themselves of the stunning outdoor area, under the watchful eye of their parents, who can relax and linger over their meals.

Bookings are essential and can be made by calling 6125 5289. And the good news is that parents can take advantage of the child-friendly atmosphere, stylish decor and inspiring menu for breakfast, every day of the week and Monday to Friday for lunch and dinner.
