

ANU CHANGING FUTURES SCHOLARSHIP CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the Australian National University ('the University') may offer an award known as the ANU Changing Futures Scholarship ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to acknowledge the achievement of, and offer financial support to, applicants who have been shortlisted for an alternative scholarship but who were unsuccessful in that process.

Funding for this Award has been provided by the University.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the Award is three years. The Award is paid in equal instalments at the beginning of each semester unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of this Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to a prospective ANU student who:

- (a) is a domestic student;
- (b) is shortlisted for a scholarship but is unsuccessful in the final stage of that scholarship process,
- (c) receives an offer of admission to an undergraduate program at the University;

4. APPLICATION

There is no application as students are automatically considered based on them meeting the eligibility criteria or conditions prescribed under the Eligibility section.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of applicants meeting the eligibility criteria. Where there are multiple applicants who meet the eligibility criteria, a merit list will be created to identify the applicant/s in most need who satisfy one or more of the following criteria:

- (a) financial hardship;
- (b) Indigenous Australian;
- (c) long-term medical condition/disability or ongoing effects of abuse;
- (d) refugee;
- (e) final years of schooling at a low ICSEA school (school below 900), and if required, ranked according to severity of disadvantage;
- (f) natural disasters

Preference may be given to:

- applicants who qualify for multiple categories a-f as above and/or
- applicants who are not receiving another award from the University

Awarding of the scholarship will be approved by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic).

The University reserves the right to make no Award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The University may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent scholarships as outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this Award is required to enrol in a full-time load (minimum of 18 units per semester). A recipient requests permission, in writing, from the nominee of the Chair of the University Coursework Scholarships Committee to hold the Award on a part-time basis. If approved, payments of the Award will be made on a pro-rata basis.

Recipients are expected to maintain a Grade Point Average (GPA) of 4.0 or above each semester (with the average being across all courses taken in a particular semester or session/s overlapping that semester).

If a recipient is unable to achieve the GPA in any semester a formal warning is sent.

If the recipient does not meet the required GPA in a subsequent semester they risk having their Award suspended or terminated.

A recipient is given the opportunity to explain their performance and how their performance can be remedied before a decision on the suspension or termination of an Award is made.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (g) if a student no longer meets the eligibility requirements;
- (h) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2; or
- (i) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;
- (j) if a recipient fails to enrol as required in section 8;
- (k) if a recipient changes to part-time enrolment without receiving permission to retain their scholarship;
- (l) if a recipient fails to meet the minimum academic performance requirements;
- (m) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Misconduct & Discipline Rules;

whichever is earliest.

10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the University may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

The awarding of a scholarship is based on the information provided to the University. An award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment in awarding the scholarship.

12. TAXATION & CENTRELINK

Recipients are responsible for seeking taxation and Centrelink advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Scholarships may be regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis.

For information on how your award may affect your Centrelink benefits, see this website <http://www.humanservices.gov.au/customer/enablers/income/>

14. PUBLICITY

The recipient may be requested to participate in publicity for the Award from time to time. This may include publicity in the state or territory of residence or of schooling.
