Each year the University may offer an award known as the ANU Re-entry PhD Scholarship ("the Award").

The objective of the Award is to provide support for graduates who wish to resume academic studies after a break of at least 3 years since formal enrolment in a university program, the break normally being due to fulfilment of family obligations.

Funding for this Award has been provided by the University.

2. BENEFITS

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all administrative fees by the prescribed date as set by the University each session. Recipients of this Award are responsible for the cost of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

Duration: The duration of a full-time Award will be 3 years in the first instance, less periods of enrolment undertaken for the PhD/DPsych(Clin) degree during suspension of the Award, or such shorter period as is stated in the letter of offer.

Periods of paid program leave taken in accordance with Section 38 of the ANU Research Awards Rule, as well as maternity and parental leave, are additional to the normal duration of the Award.

The maximum period of extension is six months and an extension may be sought only where the HDR program has been delayed by circumstances beyond the recipient's control, and are not of a personal nature. Doctor of Psychology (Clinical) students are not eligible for this extension.

Where a claim for a relocation reimbursement is in respect of a recipient's spouse, de facto partner, or dependent child or children, they must accompany the recipient to Canberra, or join the recipient in Canberra within 12 months of the recipient commencing their HDR program.

Recipients who are resident outside the Australian Capital Territory or who are permanently resident outside Australia at the time of application are eligible to receive a one-off relocation reimbursement, capped at a maximum of $1,000 for Domestic students, towards the costs of moving to Canberra to take up their eligible HDR program, on production of original tax invoice/receipts.

Applicants are required to apply for admission to the University at the time of applying for this scholarship.

The applicant is also required to submit a statement by a date set by the University and advertised on the ANU website, setting out their case for why they should be awarded the scholarship, and indicating their circumstances in regards to the reasons behind taking a break from their studies. The application should be emailed to hdr.candidature@anu.edu.au with 'ANU Re-Entry PhD Scholarship' in the email title.

5. SELECTION

Selection will be made on the basis of the student's scholarship application and academic record. Other factors such as research potential may also be taken into account.

The Award will be offered to a student by the Central Scholarships Selection Committee.

The Selection Committee reserves the right to make no Award if it considers there is no candidate of sufficient merit. The Selection Committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or candidates (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to concurrently hold other scholarships, awards, grants and bursaries subject to the terms of the corresponding section in the Conditions of Award of the other scholarship/bursary/grant/award that they are holding.

A part-time Award may be offered or approved if the recipient has reasons acceptable to the University which preclude full-time study for part or all of the program of study. In such cases the University must be satisfied that the reasons relate to caring commitments, a medical condition, a disability or other circumstance which limits the recipient's capacity to undertake full-time study.

An Award cannot be transferred to another institution. With approval from the Delegated Authority in the College an Award may be transferred to another College within the University.

9. SUSPENSION OF AWARD

A recipient may apply for suspension of their Award. The approval of a suspension will be at the discretion of the recipient's College. A suspension may be appropriate if a recipient is studying at another institution and receives an award for that study. In these circumstances the duration of the Award will be reduced by the periods of study undertaken towards the degree during suspension of the Award (unless the study was undertaken overseas as part of a Commonwealth Government financially supported international postgraduate research scholarship or award).

The University may suspend the Award where a recipient has:

- a) outstanding fees;
- b) an outstanding debt with the University; or

A recipient who is taking leave from their program, or changing their enrolment intensity from full-time to part-time, is expected to submit the prescribed Manage My Degree - HDR form in a timely manner and, where possible, in advance, in order to avoid receiving an overpayment of their Award. In circumstances where an overpayment does occur, the overpayments will be recovered in line with the University's Procedure: Overpayments.

Where a recipient is overpaid an amount in excess of a full fortnightly disbursement, the University may recover the overpayment by withholding future Award payments at the same rate that the Award was overpaid, until the balance is rectified.

In cases of overpayment or outstanding financial debts to the University, service restrictions are applied to recipients. Service restrictions include temporarily withholding recipients' access to:

- (a) enrol or re-enrol in a program or course;
- (b) obtain a transcript of academic record;
- (c) acquire results of any assessment in a course or program;
- (d) receive a degree, diploma, certificate or other award of the University.

12. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment in offering the Award.
