

AUSTRALIAN CENTRE ON CHINA IN THE WORLD PHD SCHOLARSHIP CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

The Australian Centre on China in the World (CIW), in the ANU College of Asia and the Pacific (College), may offer up to two awards, known as the Australian Centre on China in the World PhD Scholarship (Award).

Funding for this Award has been provided by the CIW.

The CIW aims to be one of the leading international institutions for China Studies, encompassing all scholarship that furthers our understanding of the Chinese world — the People's Republic of China, Taiwan and the Chinese diaspora. CIW is committed to pursuing multi-disciplinary research that draws on the best traditions of both the humanities and social sciences, and that engages with the policy-making community of bureaucrats, diplomats and politicians. The Centre is also committed to training and supporting the next generation of China scholars, specialists and China literate young people, both nationally and internationally.

The objective of this Award is to provide funding for up to two outstanding domestic<sup>1</sup> and/or international<sup>2</sup> students to enable them to pursue a Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) program in China Studies. The students will belong to an ANU School appropriate for their discipline, but will also be an active member of the CIW community during their PhD program.

While CIW administers the funding of the Award, the local area—where the award recipient is based—is responsible for supervising and monitoring the student's progress

5. ELIGIBILITY

The Award will be available each year to up to two prospective domestic and/or international students who:

- a) are enrolling full-time in a program of study for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in China Studies, based in the CIW; and
- b) has demonstrated H1/2A equivalence: for undergraduate degrees, the result should be First Class Honours or Second Class Honours (First Division). For master degrees, there should be a research component. Academic referee reports are essential to the application. Most students who are successful in their application for admission to a research degree are in the top 5-10 per cent of their class in their previous degree.

6. SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

To be eligible, applicants must have been accepted into a PhD program at ANU. Applicants will have to e-mail their ANU application number to ciw@anu.edu.au at the time of application.

When applicants have been accepted into a PhD Program, the local area will forward applications that wish to be considered for a CIW PhD Scholarship.

7. SELECTION

Selection will be made on the basis of:

- a) academic merit and research potential, referee reports and other evidence; and
- b) effective use of funds; and
- c) demonstrated intention to meet the Objective/s; and
- d) discipline research interests; and
- e) a research topic that focuses on China and/or the Chinese-speaking world.

The selection committee will be chaired by Director, Australian Centre on China in the World and will include at least two senior academic staff from across the University.

The selection committee may make no Award if it considers there is no student of sufficient merit. Where funds permit, the selection committee may also:

- a) vary the number of Awards; and/or
- b) offer the Award at other times.

8. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient is permitted to hold other scholarships, awards, grants and bursaries concurrently with this Award, provided the terms of the other scholarship permits this also.

However a recipient may not receive another allowance, award, grant or bursary to undertake the proposed program, which exceeds the value of 75 per cent of the Award stipend.

9. DEFERMENT

The Award must be taken up no later than the date specified in the letter of offer, unless otherwise approved.

10. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient is required to remain enrolled full-time in an eligible program of study for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy at the Australian National University.

11. SUSPENSION OF AWARD

A recipient may apply to the College for suspension of their Award. A suspension may be appropriate if a recipient is studying at another institution and receives an award for that study. In these circumstances the duration of the Award will be reduced by the periods of study undertaken towards the degree during suspension of the Award (unless the study was undertaken overseas as part of a Commonwealth Government financially supported international postgraduate research scholarship or award).

The University may suspend the Award where a recipient has:

- a) outstanding fees; or
- b) an outstanding debt with the University; or
- c) outstanding HDR program milestone/s; or
- d) been found to be in breach of a statute, rule or policy or procedure of the University.

The Award will be suspended when at least 5 working days have passed since the University advised the recipient in writing that the milestones, debt and/or fees are outstanding, until the milestones have been met or the outstanding fees and/or debt have been paid. Under these circumstances, the recipient will forfeit payment of the Award for the period of time that their Award is suspended.

12. END OF AWARD

The Award ends:

- a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 3; or
  - b) on submission of the thesis for examination; or
  - c) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences; or
- may be terminated if a recipient is found to be in breach of a statute, rule, policy or procedure of the University.

13. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

A recipient who is taking leave from their program, or changing their enrolment intensity from full-time to part-time, must submit the prescribed Manage My Degree - HDR form in a timely manner and, where possible in advance, in order to avoid receiving an overpayment of their Award. In circumstances where an overpayment does occur, these will be recovered in accordance with the ANU Procedure - Overpayments.

14. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

The offer of the Award is based on the information provided by the student to the University. An Award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment of the Award.

15. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances, these Conditions of Award may be varied by the Dean on the recommendation of the Chair of the selection committee.

16. TAXATION AND CENTRELINK

Recipients are responsible for seeking taxation and Centrelink advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Scholarships, grants or awards may be regarded as taxable income in some circumstances.

For information on how the Award may affect Centrelink benefits, please refer to:
<http://www.humanservices.gov.au/customer/enablers/income/>

17. ACCOMMODATION

It is the recipient's responsibility to obtain residential accommodation. Information on student accommodation and application forms are available from the University Accommodation Services. Information may be found at:
<http://www.anu.edu.au/students/services/accommodation>

18. PUBLICITY

A recipient may be invited to participate in publicity for the Award from time to time, including an interview and photograph.
