

ANU COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS CHANGING FUTURES SCHOLARSHIP

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the ANU College of Business and Economics (“the College”) may offer an award known as the ANU College of Business and Economics Changing Futures Scholarship (“the award”).

The objective of this award is to strengthen educational outcomes for students both in terms of skills development and preparation for further study or employment, and raise awareness of the acute disadvantages that some students face in accessing university education.

Funding for the award has been provided by donors to the ANU College of Business and Economics Changing Futures Scholarship Fund.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the award is stated in the letter of offer. The duration of the award is for up to three years of full-time study, (maximum of 144 units). The award payment will align to the recipient’s academic study load. For example, 24 unit enrolment constitutes 100% award payment; 18 unit enrolment constitutes 75% award payment, etc. The award will be paid at the beginning of each semester of the undergraduate program.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of this award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available to a prospective ANU student who:

- (a) is an Australian citizen, Australian permanent resident, New Zealand citizen (or dual citizenship holders of either Australia or New Zealand) or Australian humanitarian visa holder;
- (b) is a current school leaver in Australia at an Australian High School (or College);
- (c) receives an offer of admission and will enrol in an undergraduate coursework program offered by the College; and
- (d) is eligible for National Access Scheme (NAS) financial hardship adjustment factors (as demonstrated in the ASA application).

4. APPLICATION

All applicants applying for admission through the ANU Admission Scholarship and Accommodation Application System will be automatically considered for the award based on them meeting the eligibility criteria and electing to be considered for scholarships.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of the applicant's level of financial hardship demonstrated. Academic merit may be considered where two or more candidates are assessed as having the same level of financial hardship.

The award is offered to a student by the University Coursework Scholarships Committee. Membership of this committee is outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

The College reserves the right to make no award if there is no candidate of sufficient merit. The College may also vary the number of awards and/or offer the award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the ANU College of Business and Economics Changing Futures Scholarship is permitted to hold concurrent scholarships as outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this award may enrol in a full-time (18 or 24 units) or part-time basis (minimum 6 units).

Recipients are expected to maintain a Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of 60% each semester (with the average being calculated across all courses taken in a particular semester or session/s overlapping that semester).

If a recipient is unable to achieve the required WAM in any semester a formal warning letter is sent.

If the recipient does not meet the required WAM in a subsequent semester they risk having their award suspended or terminated.

An award recipient is given the opportunity to explain their performance and how their performance can be remedied before a decision on the suspension or termination of an award is made.
