FROHLICH TRAVEL GRANT TO SUPPORT THE PERMANENT COURT OF ARBITRATION (PCA) FELLOWSHIP
CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the ANU College of Law ('the College') may offer an award known as the Frohlich Travel Grant to support the Permanent Court of Arbitration (PCA) Fellowship ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to provide support to a current student, or graduate of the ANU College of Law, undertaking a 12-month Fellowship with the Permanent Court of Arbitration (PCA) in The Hague, Netherlands.

Funding for this Award has been provided by the Frohlich Endowment in Law.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in the letter of offer. The Award is paid in a one-off payment upon accepting the Award unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for organising their passport, visa and insurance, and other costs involved in travel.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to an ANU student or recent graduate who (at the time of application):

- (a) is a domestic or international student;
- (b) is in their final year of Juris Doctor or Bachelor of Laws (Hons), whether undertaking as a single or flexible double degree, at ANU College of Law; or
- (c) is enrolled in the LLM at ANU College of Law; or
- (d) graduated from the LLB(Hons), JD or LLM from the ANU Law School in the last five years.

4. APPLICATION

The application is submitted on the prescribed form. Any requirement for supporting documentation and forwarding details will be stated on the application form and/or ANU Scholarships website. The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on or prior to the closing date published on the ANU scholarships website.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of applicants meeting the eligibility criteria and the cumulative GPA attained in their LLB(Hons), JD or LLM. Preference may be given to prior studies in international law, and experience in practice and/or research in international law.

The Award is offered to a student by a selection committee chaired by the Dean of ANU College of Law (or nominee) which will also include two academic staff members of the ANU College of Law. The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if the recipient no longer meets the eligibility requirements;
- (b) in the event that personal circumstances beyond the control of the recipient, require that they abandon the Fellowship prior to the end of the 12 month period;
- (c) if the recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the PCA;
- (d) if the recipient breaks the law in the Netherlands or breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Integrity Policy and/or the Discipline Rule.

whichever is earliest.

9. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the Dean of the ANU College of Law (or nominee) may request that the payment for the award be refunded in part or full, if there is a breach of conditions or cessation of the award under section 8. If such a request is made by the Dean, the recipient must repay the amount determined by the Dean.

10. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

The Award is based on the information provided to the University. The Award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment for the Award.

11. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis section 7 of these Conditions of Award may be varied by the Dean on the recommendation of the Chair of the selection committee.

12. TAXATION & CENTRELINK

Recipients are responsible for seeking taxation and Centrelink advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Awards may be regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis.

For information on how the Award may affect your Centrelink benefits, see this website <http://www.humanservices.gov.au/customer/enablers/income/>

13. ACCOMMODATION

It is the recipient's responsibility to obtain residential accommodation. Information on student accommodation and application forms are available from the University Accommodation Services. Information may be found on the Web at: <http://www.anu.edu.au/study/accommodation>

14. PUBLICITY

The recipient may be requested to participate in publicity for the Award from time to time. This may include publicity in the state or territory of residence or of schooling. Recipients may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the Award by publishing the names of the recipients. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the ANU College of Law or ANU Communications and Engagement (ACE).

15. DISCLOSURE AND DONOR CONTACT

For the purposes of reporting on the impact of awards, the name, program name and demographics (for example: age, country or town of residence) relating to a recipient of the Award may be disclosed to donors supporting the Award. This will not include recipient contact details. The recipient may be asked to write a personal note of thanks or to meet with donors. Any contact between a donor and a recipient will be facilitated by the ANU Advancement Office or an authorised representative of the University.

16. CONTACT WITH THE AWARD OWNER

All enquiries regarding the Award and changes, issues, or further information after acceptance should be made to:
