

GLOBAL POWER GENERATION AUSTRALIA SCHOLARSHIP IN THE HYDROGEN ECONOMY

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the Energy Change Institute (ECI) may offer one award known as the Global Power Generation Scholarship in the Hydrogen Economy (“the award”).

The objective of the award is to support a student undertaking research in the Hydrogen Economy, at ANU.

Funding for this award has been provided by Global Power Generation Pty Ltd (GPG).

2. BENEFITS

The value of the award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the award is one year. The award is paid in two equal instalments after census date each semester unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of this award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to a current ANU student who:

- (a) is a domestic or international student;
- (b) is enrolled in the Master of Energy Change (Advanced) program or has undertaken the Master of Energy Change program and is eligible to transfer to the Master of Energy Change (Advanced)
- (c) has achieved at least 70% average in the coursework component of the program
- (d) has a suitable supervisor and meets conditions for enrolling into SCNC8021 Science Research Project (24 units over two semesters)
- (e) is undertaking a research project in the field of the Hydrogen Economy (see <https://energy.anu.edu.au/hydrogen-economy>)

4. APPLICATION

The application is submitted by following the requirements outlined on the relevant ANU Scholarships website. The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on, or prior to, the closing date published on the ANU scholarships website.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of applicants meeting the eligibility criteria and on application.

The award is offered to a student by the Director of ANU Energy Change Institute (or nominee) based on a recommendation from the selection committee chaired by the Convenor of Hydrogen Economy Cluster of ECI (or nominee). The selection committee will also include:

- A representative from Global Power Generation Australia Pty Ltd
- A representative from Evoenergy

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of awards and/or offer the award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Global Power Generation Scholarship in Hydrogen Economy is permitted to hold concurrent scholarships as outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The recipient is expected to take up their award in the semester for which it is offered. Any requests for deferrals of the award must be approved by the Convenor of Hydrogen Economy Cluster of ECI. Subject to approval, the award may be deferred for a maximum of one semester.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this award is required to enrol in a full-time load (18-24 units per semester). A recipient requests permission, in writing, from the by the Convenor of Hydrogen Economy Cluster of ECI to hold the award on a part-time basis. If approved, payments of the award will be made on a pro-rata basis.

A recipient must maintain enrolment in SCNC8021.

A recipient must actively conduct research under the guidance of their project supervisor and participate in and contribute to activities of the Hydrogen Economy research cluster of the ANU Energy Change Institute.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if a student no longer meets the eligibility requirements
- (b) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2; or
- (c) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;
- (d) if a recipient fails to enrol as required in section 8;

- (e) if a recipient changes to part-time enrolment without receiving permission to retain their scholarship;
- (f) if a recipient changes their program or course;
- (h) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Misconduct & Discipline Rules;

whichever is earliest.

10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the Director of ECI may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

The awarding of a scholarship is based on the information provided to the University. An award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment in awarding the scholarship.

12. TAXATION & CENTRELINK

Recipients are responsible for seeking taxation and Centrelink advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Scholarships may be regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis.

For information on how your award may affect your Centrelink benefits, see this website <http://www.humanservices.gov.au/customer/enablers/income/>

13. ACCOMMODATION

It is the recipient's responsibility to obtain residential accommodation. Information on student accommodation and application forms are available from the University Accommodation Services. Information may be found on the Web at: <http://www.anu.edu.au/study/accommodation>

14. PUBLICITY

The recipient may be requested to participate in publicity for the award from time to time. This may include publicity in the state or territory of residence or of schooling. Recipients may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the award by publishing the names of the recipients. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the ANU Energy Change Institute or Strategic Communications and Public Affairs Office of the University.

15. CONTACT WITH THE SCHOLARSHIP OWNER

All enquiries regarding the award and changes, issues, or further information after acceptance should be made to:
