Judith Wright Scholarship

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the Tjabal Indigenous Higher Education Centre (‘the Tjabal Centre’) may offer an award known as the Judith Wright Scholarship (‘the award’).

The objective of the award is to assist female Indigenous students in undertaking research in their chosen field of study in the future.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the award is stated in your letter of offer. The award is paid as a one-off payment on acceptance of the offer, unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of this award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to a current female undergraduate ANU student who:

a) is an Australian citizen; and

b) is of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent; and

c) identifies as an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person; and

d) is accepted as such by the community in which they live, or formerly lived; and

e) must have completed at least 36 units of their first year of study at the University in a program leading to the award of a bachelor’s degree.

4. APPLICATION

The application is submitted on the prescribed form. Any requirement for supporting documentation and forwarding details will be stated on the application form and/or ANU Scholarships website. The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on, or prior to, the closing date published on the ANU scholarships website.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of the student meeting the eligibility criteria above and her academic performance in the first year of study.
The award is offered to a student by a selection committee of at least three people, chaired by the Director of the Tjabal Centre which will also include at least one other senior Indigenous academic staff member.

The Tjabal Centre reserves the right to award the scholarship to a male student or to make no award if it considers there is no female student of sufficient merit. The Tjabal Centre may also vary the number of awards and/or offer the award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Judith Wright Scholarship is permitted to hold concurrent scholarships as outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this award is required to remain enrolled full-time (18-24 units) in the semester/session for which the grant is awarded.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The award ceases or should be surrendered:

a) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;

b) if a recipient fails to enrol as required in section 8;

c) if a recipient changes to part-time enrolment without receiving permission to retain their scholarship;

d) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Misconduct & Discipline Rules;

whichever is earliest.

10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, Director of the Tjabal Centre may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

The awarding of a scholarship is based on the information provided to the University. An award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information
12. TAXATION & CENTRELINK

Recipients are responsible for seeking taxation and Centrelink advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Scholarships/grants may be regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis.

For information on how your award may affect your Centrelink benefits, see this website http://www.humanservices.gov.au/customer/enablers/income/

13. DISCLOSURE AND DONOR CONTACT

For the purposes of reporting on the impact of scholarships, the name, program name and demographics (for example: age, country or town of residence) relating to a recipient of this award may be disclosed to donors supporting the award. This will not include recipient contact details. The recipient may be asked to write a personal note of thanks or to meet with donors. Any contact between a donor and a recipient will be facilitated by the ANU Advancement Office or an authorised representative of the University.

14. CONTACT WITH THE SCHOLARSHIP OWNER

All enquiries regarding the award and changes, issues, or further information after acceptance should be made to:
