

RUTH DOBSON SCHOLARSHIP

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the Department of International Relations ('the Department') in the ANU College of Asia & the Pacific may offer up to two awards known as the Ruth Dobson Scholarship ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to attract the highest achieving students for the advancement of Diplomatic Studies.

Funding for this Award has been provided by the Australian Department of Education and Training. It was established to commemorate Australia's first female career diplomat to be an Australian ambassador, Miss Ruth Dobson.

2. BENEFITS

Recipients of this Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funding allows).

If approved, payments of the Award will be made on a pro-rata basis.

Recipients are expected to maintain a Grade Point Average (GPA) of 5.0 out of 7.0 each semester (with the average being across all courses taken in a particular semester).

If a recipient is unable to achieve the GPA in any semester a formal warning is sent.
