

TALL FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP in CLASSICS

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the ANU School of Literature, Languages and Linguistics in the ANU College of Arts & Social Sciences ("the College") may award one (1) scholarship, known as the Tall Foundation Scholarship in Classics ("the Scholarship"), in the first semester of the academic year. The Scholarship may be awarded to either an Honours IV student or a Master of Classical Studies (Advanced) student.

The donors of the Tall Foundation Scholarship in Classics are ANU alumni with broad interests in Classics and Ancient History. Through the awarding of the Scholarship, the donors hope to encourage and inspire students to undertake additional study and research in the fields of Classics and Ancient History.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Scholarship will be set out in the formal scholarship letter of offer. Unless otherwise stated in the offer letter, if the scholar is enrolled full-time, the Scholarship is to be held for two consecutive academic semesters (48 units) only and will be paid in two equal instalments. If the scholar is enrolled part-time the Scholarship is to be held for four consecutive academic semesters (48 units) only and will be paid in four equal instalments. In all cases the Scholarship will be paid after the Census Date of each semester the scholar is enrolled. Any leave taken will be deducted from the scholarship duration.

The scholar is responsible for making payment of all his/her tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session/semester. Scholars are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

  - Bachelor of Arts;
  - Bachelor of Classical Studies;
  - Bachelor of Philosophy;

Research in the Honours program is to be consistent with the broad field of study in Classics and Ancient History.

In the event that the Scholarship is not awarded to a student commencing an Honours program, a student who is commencing a Masters program may be considered for the Scholarship and shall be available to:

- domestic and international students;

4. APPLICATION

Applicants wishing to apply for a Scholarship must complete a Tall Foundation Scholarship in Classics Application Form (available from the ANU Scholarship website), which will be considered in conjunction with their application to the ANU Honours or Master of Classical Studies (Advanced) program and, if deemed appropriate by the Selection Committee, a personal interview.

5. SELECTION

The selection of the Scholarship recipient shall be made by a Selection Committee comprising at least three members of academic staff of the College (Director, Research School of Humanities and the Arts; the Head of School, School of Literature, Languages and Linguistics and the Convenor of Classics, School of Literature, Languages and Linguistics, or their nominees), and will be chaired by the Director of the Research School of Humanities and the Arts (or nominee). The Scholarship recipient will be selected primarily on the basis of academic merit and in accordance with the eligibility criteria and application requirements.

The Scholarship shall not be awarded if, in the opinion of the Selection Committee, there is no candidate of sufficient merit.

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF OTHER AWARDS

A scholar may be permitted to concurrently hold another ANU award, scholarship or grant with the Tall Foundation Scholarship in Classics where both scholarship conditions allow. A scholar must obtain permission from the Associate Dean (Education) of the College (or nominee) to do so.

Failure to declare and obtain permission to hold another award or scholarship may result in the scholar being required to refund the Scholarship to the College, as determined by the Associate Dean (Education) of the College (or nominee).

7. DEFERMENT

The Scholarship may not be deferred and the award must be taken up in the semester for which it is offered. Successful applicants who do not take up the Scholarship, including applicants who defer their studies, forfeit the Scholarship and must reapply in a subsequent round if they wish to again be considered for the Scholarship.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

The Scholarship may only be held while the scholar remains enrolled in the Honours program in Classics or the Master of Classical Studies (Advanced) program offered by the College of Arts and Social Sciences (outlined in section 3).

If a scholar is absent from the University for an extended period of time through illness or for any other reason, approval must have been sought and obtained from the College for 'program leave'. Approval for suspension of the scholarship should be sought from the Associate Dean (Students) of the College (or nominee)

9. AWARD CESSATION

The award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2; or
- (b) on the date on which the student withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences; or
- (c) if an awardee fails to enrol as required in section 8; or
- (d) if an awardee changes to part-time enrolment without advising the college and seeking permission to retain the scholarship,
- (e) if an awardee changes to a program outside of those stipulated in section 3; or
