YUILL TRAVEL GRANT TO SUPPORT THE ICJ FELLOWSHIP PROGRAMME CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the ANU College of Law may offer an award known as the Yuill Travel Grant to Support the International Court of Justice (ICJ) Fellowship Programme ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to support the recipient to undertake a ten-month Fellowship programme with the ICJ in The Hague, Netherlands.

Funding for this Award has been provided by the Yuill Endowment established in memory of the late Justice Gordon Yuill of the Family Court of Australia.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The Award is paid in a one-off instalment upon accepting the Award unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for organising their passport, visa and insurance, and other costs involved in travel.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to a current ANU student or ANU Alum who is (at the time of application):

- (a) a domestic or international student; and
- (b) in their final year of Juris Doctor or Bachelor of Laws (Hons), whether undertaking as a single or flexible double degree, at the ANU College of Law; or
- (c) enrolled in the LLM at the ANU College of Law; or
- (d) a recent graduate of the LLB(Hons), JD or LLM from the ANU College of Law. A 'recent' graduate is defined as one graduating within five years of the date of application for the Award.

4. APPLICATION

The application is submitted on the prescribed form. Any requirement for supporting documentation and forwarding details will be stated on the application form and/or ANU Scholarships website. The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on or prior to the closing date published on the ANU scholarships website.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of applicants meeting the eligibility criteria and the answers provided in the application. Factors that will be taken into account include: an excellent academic record in law with a focus on performance in courses relating to public international law; proven research and writing skills; demonstrated experience in other related achievements, including work experience, international engagement or contribution to the wider community. Preference may be given to applicants who can demonstrate a proficiency in one of the ICJ's official languages (either French or English) and a very good working knowledge of the other.

The Award is offered to a student by a selection committee chaired by the Dean, ANU College of Law (or nominee), which will also include two academic staff members from the ANU College of Law.

The ANU selection committee will typically nominate at least two candidates to forward to the ICJ for final selection. The Award is given to the candidate selected by the ICJ to undertake the Fellowship. The ICJ reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant from ANU of sufficient merit.

The ANU selection committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if a student no longer meets the eligibility requirements;
- (b) if a recipient fails to complete the Fellowship programme;
- (c) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the ICJ; or
- (d) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Integrity Rule; whichever is earliest.

9. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the Dean of the ANU College of Law may request that the payment for the Award be refunded in part or full, if there is a breach of conditions or cessation of the Award under section 8. If such a request is made by the Dean, the recipient must repay the amount determined by the Dean.

10. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

The Award is based on the information provided to the University. The Award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment for the Award.

11. TAXATION & CENTRELINK

Recipients are responsible for seeking taxation and Centrelink advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Awards may be regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis or has graduated from their program.

For information on how the Award may affect your Centrelink benefits, see this website <http://www.humanservices.gov.au/customer/enablers/income/>

12. ACCOMMODATION

It is the recipient's responsibility to obtain residential accommodation.

13. PUBLICITY

The recipient may be requested to participate in publicity for the Award from time to time. This may include publicity in the state or territory of residence or of schooling. Recipients may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the Award by publishing the names of the recipients. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the ANU College of Law or ANU Communications and Engagement (ACE).

14. DISCLOSURE AND DONOR CONTACT

For the purposes of reporting on the impact of awards, the name, program name and demographics (for example: age, country or town of residence) relating to a recipient of the Award may be disclosed to donors supporting the Award. This will not include recipient contact details. The recipient may be asked to write a personal note of thanks or to meet with donors. Any contact between a donor and a recipient will be facilitated by the ANU Advancement Office or an authorised representative of the University.
