Title	Start Date	Due Date	Post Date	Marks Available
Upload your draft for your appointment - Part 1	16 Mar 2020 - 12:13	31 Dec 2020 - 00:00	16 Mar 2020 - 12:13	100

Summary:

If you have any particular information you'd like your Writing Coach or Learning Adviser to know, or any specific questions you'd like answered, please include that message at the top of your draft. Also, it would be helpful if you included the assignment instructions. Please try to combine your assignment instructions and your draft into the one document that you then upload for your appointment.

If you are in the early stages of drafting and only want advice on a structure for your essay / report, or only have some questions, or only want to run a few ideas by a Writing Coach or Learning Adviser, please upload those questions / outline / ideas in a Word doc, and we'll do our best to give you helpful feedback.

Log back in to Wattle to find your feedback at the end of your appointment slot. Sometimes, your feedback will be earlier, but at times the Writing Coach or Learning Adviser might be running a little behind. Please be patient. If the feedback will be a little late, you will typically receive a quick email to let you know. The majority of the time, however, your feedback will be on time or early.

You can receive feedback in three ways: overall comments, in line comments, and voice comments. Most of the time, a Writing Coach or Learning Adviser will provide all three. However, we will ALWAYS provide a detailed written overall comment in the feedback / comment box. There may be less in line or no in line comments, but have a little look through your draft for any of those comments. Finally, have a listen to any voice comments. Those are mainly used to reiterate the main message in the overall comment box, and to personalise the feedback.
