LGBTIQ+ Support
Intersex, Sexual Diversity and Gender Diversity

The ANU is committed to equity and diversity, and creating an inclusive and welcoming environment for all students. Below are some resources which may be helpful in accessing support, building inclusion and fostering involvement in the university and local community.

ANU Queer* Department: The Queer* Department provides services to all LGBTIQA (lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, intersex, queer/questioning, and/or asexual OR queer* for short) students at the Australian National University. This includes running social events, meetings, advocating, and running political campaigns. There is a space available that is open to all queer* identifying students, with a kitchen with a fridge, gender-neutral toilets, a queer* library full of books and DVDs, a TV, as well as plenty of quiet study space. See the Queer Department contact page https://anusa.com.au/advocacy/queer-collective/ to see how you can get involved.

ANU Queer* Officer & Deputies: The Queer* Officer sit on ANUSA’s SRC and advocate for queer* students. They are also available for a chat so if you would like to talk to them, send an email or visit them during contact hours.
