

Rights, Relationships and Respect 2023

Consent and Healthy Relationships Program

Australian
National University

Stream 1 Online only

Stream 2 Online + 1 hour in-person

Stream 3 Online + pilot program

RRR 1 hour online module

- Custom built for ANU
- Introduces participants to ANU support pathways, values and expectations around healthy and respectful relationships
- To commence in February 2023

Audience

- Essential for all other commencing students

RRR 1 hour online module +

1 hour in-person training session

- Previously called Enlivening Consent
- Contextualise online module
- Providing space for questions and dialogue
- Delivered in O-week by RRU with support of student leaders

Audience

- Mandatory for all commencing residential students except those in the pilot program

RRR 1 hour online module +

3 x 2 hour in-person workshops

- Supplement online module
- Build students understanding of the drivers of sexual violence, sexual consent, healthy sex and relationships, and bystander intervention
- Student-led delivery supported by the RRU, SSW and expert practitioners

Audience

- John XXII, Burton and Garran Hall, and Ursula Hall

Evaluation

Mixed-methods evaluation to assess the implementation and impact of the program

Respectful
Relationships
Unit