

A D BARTON PRIZE

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the ANU College of Business and Economics may offer two (2) prizes known as the A D Barton Prize for Accounting.

The objective of the prizes is to support scholars studying accounting at the ANU College of Business and Economics.

The prize was established in 1998 by Professor Allan Barton.

The value of each prize awarded is $500.00.

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU student who is:

- a) domestic or international student;
- b) enrolled in the Bachelor of Commerce (Honours), or Bachelor of Accounting (Honours) programs at the ANU College of Business and Economics; and
- c) achieved the first and second highest result of first class honours in the combined cohorts of Bachelor of Accounting (Honours) and Bachelor of Commerce (Honours) in the year of offer.

3. SELECTION AND CRITERIA

The prize shall be awarded to the student who achieved the first and second highest result of first class honours in the combined cohorts of Bachelor of Accounting (Honours) and Bachelor of Commerce (Honours) in the year of offer.

The College of Business and Economics reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit.

If the Honours programs cease to be offered, the prize shall be awarded in respect of another course or program of similar content, in the opinion of the Dean of the ANU College of Business and Economics.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of the prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to The College of Business and Economics no later than 30 days from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the publication of their name.

In some instances, the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) Write a letter of thanks to the donor;
- 2) Participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 1; or
- (b) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended
- (c) after 3 years

whichever is earliest.

6. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, these conditions of award may be varied by the Dean of the ANU College of Business and Economics on the recommendation of the Registrar.
