Antonella Salpietro Prize for Marine Ecology

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the ANU College of Science may offer a prize known as the Antonella Salpietro Prize for Marine Ecology

The objective/s of the prize are to award a student who in that year was enrolled in a program leading to the award of a degree of Bachelor; and has achieved the best result as shown by the award of the highest mark, in the course Marine Conservation Ecology (BIOL3116).

The value of the prize awarded is $600.00

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU student who:

(a) Is a domestic or international student;

(b) has enrolled in an undergraduate program leading to the award of a Degree of Bachelor; and

(c) has achieved the best result as shown by the award of the highest mark, in the course Marine Conservation Ecology (BIOL3116)

A student is not eligible to be awarded the prize if in any year:

(a) the student is making a second or subsequent attempt at the course; or

(b) the student has previously pursued a course of study in a course, unit or subject (whether at the University or another tertiary education institution), the content of which, is in the opinion of the Deputy Dean (Education), substantially similar to the content of the course for which the prize is to be awarded

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

The prize shall be awarded to the student who achieves the best result as shown by the award of the highest mark in the course Marine Conservation Ecology (BIOL3116)

If, in any year, two or more students achieve the same top mark, the prize awarded in that year shall be divided equally between them.
The College of Science reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no student who achieves results that, in the opinion of the Deputy Dean (Education) justify awarding the prize in that year.

The College of Science reserves the right to make no award if the course Marine Conservation Ecology ceases to be offered.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to The College of Science no later than 30 days from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances the recipient may be asked to:
1) write a letter of thanks to the donor;
