CLINICAL NEUROSCIENCE PRIZE CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the ANU Medical School may offer a prize known as the Clinical Neuroscience Prize.

The objective of the prize is to recognise exemplary achievement in Neurology for students currently enrolled in Year Four of the Doctor of Medicine and Surgery (MChD).

The value of the prize/s awarded is $1000 – monetary.

Professor Christian Lueck donated the funding for this prize from the monies awarded to him by the Australian Learning and Teaching Council for his Award for Teaching Excellence in 2010. The annual prize is of $1,000 from an initial endowment of $25,000.

Professor Lueck has instituted this prize to help motivated, highly performing medical students to consider Neurology as a long term career choice.

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU MChD student who is:

- (a) enrolled in Year Four of the MChD at the ANU College of Health and Medicine; and
- (b) demonstrated best overall performance in Neurology assessment items across Phase 1 and Phase 2 (as advised by the Medical Education Unit)

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

The Clinical Director of the Neurology Department at The Canberra Hospital, in consultation with the Medical Education Unit at the ANU Medical School, will recommend a winner to the Director.

The ANU Medical School reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The ANU Medical School may also vary the number of prizes if multiple winners are identified by splitting the prize.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to meu.medicalschool@anu.edu.au no later than 30 days from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) write a letter of thanks to the donor;

2) participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement.

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended
- (b) after 3 years

whichever is earliest.

6. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, these conditions of award may be varied by the Director on the recommendation of the Clinical Director of the Neurology Department at The Canberra Hospital.
